

Law & Society Review
BASIC STYLE SHEET

All manuscripts should be typed double spaced on one side only. Rejected manuscripts cannot ordinarily be returned. While manuscripts need not conform to this style sheet at the time of submission, all manuscripts must include footnotes and a list of references, and all accepted manuscripts must be revised by the author to conform to the style of the Review. The rules listed below supplement the manuscript information on the inside front cover of the Review. Authors are urged to consult recent issues of this journal for further illustrations. A more detailed style sheet is available from the editorial office.

1. CITATIONS: All notes that consist merely of supporting citations should be placed in parentheses in the text. They should follow the statement they support and be in the following style:

(last name of author, year: page number or numbers to which you refer, if any)

EXAMPLE: . . . the opposition in Paris (Rudé, 1967: 167).

2. FOOTNOTES: All footnotes should be numbered sequentially and placed immediately after the text. They should contain only substantive comments and additional references not immediately relevant to the text.

3. REFERENCES: References are to be placed at the end of the manuscript and double spaced. For more than one publication by the same author, list them in chronological order beginning with the oldest. For more than one publication in one year by the same author, use small letters to distinguish them (e.g., 1970a; 1970b).

a. BOOKS: LAST NAME, First name (year) Title of book.
City: Publisher.

EXAMPLE: ARNOLD, Thurman W. (1935) The Symbols of Government. New York: Harcourt, Brace and World.

b. ARTICLES: LAST NAME, First name (year) "Title of article," volume number Journal initial page of article (month and day only if each issue is separately paginated).

EXAMPLE: STERN, Curt (1970) "The Continuity of Genetics," 99 Daedalus 882.

4. TABLES AND FIGURES: Tables should approximate the appearance of printed tables. Figures should be camera ready. Tables and/or figures should be placed at the end of the text, after footnotes and references. Their location within the text should be indicated as follows:

5. ABSTRACTS: All articles should include an abstract of between 50 and 100 words.

Agent Orange on Trial

Mass Toxic Disaster in the Courts

Peter H. Schuck

The Agent Orange Case is an unprecedented personal injury class action that has extended the frontiers of our legal system in all directions. In a book that is as much about innovative ways to look at the law as it is about the social problems arising from modern science, Peter Schuck brilliantly recounts this gigantic courtroom confrontation in a fascinating portrait of a human struggle for justice through law.

The Logic and Limits of Bankruptcy Law

Thomas H. Jackson

"I cannot think of any book on bankruptcy that is comparable to this in breadth of theoretical sophistication."

— Anthony Kronman, Yale Law School

The Critical Legal Studies Movement

Roberto Mangabeira Unger

This manifesto develops the major ideas of an intellectual movement that has transformed traditional views of law and legal doctrine, and also provides an introduction to Unger's social theory, a radical alternative to Marxism.

A Matter of Principle

Ronald Dworkin

"A philosophical feast of nineteen essays touching on a broad range of topics . . .

The great merit of these essays is that they are not only of profound interest to the professional philosopher and the academic lawyer, they are also accessible to readers without knowledge of law, philosophy, or Mr. Dworkin."

Essays in Moral Theory

Judith Jarvis Thomson

Edited by William Parent

"These essays are distinguished examples of analytical philosophy: clear, highly intelligent, and scrupulously argued . . . [Thomson's] work reaches towards morally adventurous conclusions, and is impatient of many received pieties." — Bernard Williams

Constitutional Choices

Laurence H. Tribe

"Constitutional Choices has so much going for it that every constitutional scholar — political scientist, teacher, judge, historian, congressman, and advocate alike — has to own it."
