Correction:

An error in the review by W. Brown Patterson of Glen Burgess’s Abolite Monarchy and the Stuart Constitution resulted in changing the meaning of a part of Professor Patterson’s review (Albion 29, 1 [Fall 1997], p. 101). The sentence beginning on line 7 of the second paragraph of Professor Patterson’s review should have read: “The political nation was largely in agreement that the resistance theory developed by Roman Catholic writers—that the king could be opposed by force if he ruled tyrannically or was deposed by the pope—was a threat to public order.” We regret misprinting this sentence, and apologize to Professor Patterson and our readers.
