

---

---

New Books on Latin America

Politics of a Colonial Career: José Baquijano and the Audiencia of Lima

Mark A. Burkholder

Set in Peru and Bourbon Spain between 1750 and 1815, this lively historical biography illuminates the workings of the Spanish colonial government.

February 1981    198 pp.    $20.00

Mexico and the Spanish Civil War

T. G. Powell

This compelling and informative book recounts for the first time the history of Mexico's controversial support of the Republic during the Spanish Civil War.

February 1981    240 pp.    $17.50

Political Power in Ecuador

Osvaldo Hurtado    Translated by Nick D. Mills, Jr.

This pioneering study in political sociology, now available for the first time in English, analyzes the key forces which have shaped Ecuador's history from the conquest to the present.

February 1981    328 pp., illustrated    $29.95

The Economy of Socialist Cuba: A Two-Decade Appraisal

Carmelo Mesa-Lago

The author of the highly-acclaimed political analysis, Cuba in the 1970s, now turns his focus to Cuba's economy, and weighs the successes and failures of twenty years of socialist experimentation in economic planning.

May 1981    296 pp.    $17.50 cl    $9.95 pa

Latin American Populism in Comparative Perspective

Edited by Michael Conniff

This is the first volume to treat populism from a comparative perspective. "The essays are well-researched, highly perceptive, . . . and lucidly written." Carl Solberg

June 1981    272 pp.    $19.95 cl    $9.95 pa

Drug Control in the Americas

William O. Walker III

This study, based on extensive documentary research, examines the origins and development of inter-American drug control.

May 1981    328 pp., illustrated    $25.00

University of New Mexico Press
Albuquerque, New Mexico 87131

---

---

“Sets the standard for any scholar now proposing to study rural Mexico.”

*—Hispanic American Historical Review**

“WE COME TO OBJECT”

The Peasants of Morelos and the National State

Arturo Warman

translated by Stephen Ault

For generations, “We come to object” has been the rallying cry behind which the campesinos (peasants) of the Mexican state of Morelos have approached their government to protest its economic and social exploitation of them.

Drawing on the personal recollections and oral histories of these remarkable individuals, Arturo Warman has produced a landmark study of a proud and dignified people struggling to preserve their cultural and social traditions. Looking beyond the plight of the campesinos, Warman also explores the vital role of the Mexican peasantry in the larger spheres of national government and international relations. $20.00

*of the original Spanish edition

Johns Hopkins

The Johns Hopkins University Press, Baltimore, Maryland 21218

RESEARCH GUIDE TO ANDEAN HISTORY

BOLIVIA, CHILE, ECUADOR, and PERU

Coordinating editor, John J. TePaske

Contributing editors, Judith R. and Peter J. Bakewell,
Bolivia
William F. Sater,
Chile
Jaime E. Rodríguez O.,
Ecuador
Leon G. Campbell,
Peru

More than 50 bibliographical essays, prepared under the auspices of the Andean Studies Committee of the Conference on Latin American History, make this volume the essential research tool Andean scholars have long needed. For the first time one volume presents articles describing and listing archival holdings and organization, names and addresses of archives, archivists, local bibliophiles, and reviews of special topics, as well as articles of general scope and wide interest to all Andean scholars.

SPRING 1981

$18.75

Publisher pays postage on prepaid orders.

Duke University Press

6697 College Station / Durham, North Carolina 27708

Nature and Society in Central Brazil

The Suya Indians of Mato Grosso

Anthony Seeger

Anthony Seeger delineates various strata of the Suya world—perceptions of time and space, kinship, politics and medicine, groupings of animals, plants and numbers—and evolves a simple set of beliefs about nature and transformation that seems to govern all of them. A rich and lucid account of the field methods, experiences, and observations that comprised the exploration into a hitherto unfamiliar tribe.

Harvard Studies in Cultural Anthropology, 4
17 line illus. $27.50

Harvard University Press

Cambridge, Massachusetts 02138

Rethinking Mexican History

Progress, Revolution, and Reform

Disorder and Progress

Bandits, Police, and Mexican Development

By Paul J. Vanderwood

Taking as his premise that "order and disorder are created by humans to serve their needs and ambitions," Vanderwood traces the rise and fall of banditry in 19th-century Mexico and its interplay with the formation of the Rurales. Besides presenting fresh and valuable material on the Rurales, the study elucidates the constantly shifting balance between order and disorder and their relationship to political and economic conditions. ca. 272 pages, notes, bibliography, index, illustrated.

Paper BB 767 $7.95 tent.; cloth $19.95 tent.

The Reform in Oaxaca, 1856—76

A Microhistory of the Liberal Revolution

By Charles R. Berry

This study concerns the liberal revolution of 1856—76, known in Mexican history as La Reforma. Berry views the course of the Reform from the perspective of Oaxaca, one of the strongholds of liberalism that provided many leaders of the movement. This southern state was far enough removed from Mexico City that an analysis of events here does not lapse into an essay on the liberal revolution in the national capital. At the same time, Oaxaca was close enough to the epicenter of events that repercussions from happenings in Mexico City were strongly felt locally. Thus the area reflects the national Reform in many respects. xx, 282 pages, notes, bibliography, index, maps.

$20.00

Félix Díaz, the Porfirians, and the Mexican Revolution

by Peter V. N. Henderson

In the decade between 1910 and 1920, Félix Díaz, the nephew of the dictator who was overthrown in the Revolution of 1910, tried repeatedly to establish himself as the legitimate head of the Mexican state. This study is the first full-length work to consider the role of Félix Díaz as a leader of the Porfirians—the diverse group who professed to subscribe to Porfirio Díaz's brand of 19th-century liberalism—during the Revolutionary period, and to assess his accomplishments and failures. xiv, 239 pages, notes, appendixes, bibliography, index.

$18.50

University of Nebraska Press

901 North 17th Street Lincoln 68588

Revista Latin de Musica American Latino Music Americana Review

A new semi-annual journal focusing exclusively on all of Latin America's varied oral and written musical traditions

---

Among articles appearing in the first volume: Theodore Solis on Muñecas de Chiapaneco: The Economic Importance of Self-Image in the World of the Mexican Marimba · Ralph Waddey on The Brazilian Samba de Viola in the Bahian Area · George List on African Influence in the Rhythmic and Metric Organization of Colombian Costeño Folksong and Folk Music · Pola Suárez Urtubey on Tango: Ascenso y Proyección · Sharon Girard on Venezuelan Colonial Church Music · Manuel Peña on The Saturday Night Chicano Baile in Fresno · Book Reviews · Records

---

Latin American Music Review

The University of Texas Press
Journals Department
P.O. Box 7819
Austin, TX 78712

ADD NEW PERSPECTIVES TO RESEARCH

The Changing Demography of Spanish Americans

By A. J. JAFFE, RUTH M. CULLEN, and THOMAS D. BOSWELL

A Volume in the STUDIES IN POPULATION Series

CONTENTS: Foreword by Joseph P. Fitzpatrick. Introduction. The Natural Cycle of an Ethnic Group—Some Theoretical Considerations. The Findings—A Summary. Demographic Convergence. The Hispanos. The Mexican Americans. The

Puerto Rican-Origin Population. The Cuban Americans. The Central and South American-Origin Population. The Late 1970s. Appendices. Index.
1980, 448 pp., $31.00
ISBN: 0-12-379580-X

Violence, Conflict, and Politics in Colombia

By PAUL OQUIST

A Volume in the STUDIES IN SOCIAL DISCONTINUITY Series

Between 1946 and 1966, the Republic of Colombia was the scene of one of the most intense and protracted instances of widespread civilian violence in the history of the twentieth century. Known in Colombia simply as La Violencia, this social process left a toll of at least 200,000 fatalities, including 112,000 in the 1948-1950 period alone. This book formulates an explanation of the appearance and subsequent development of La Violencia. What caused this violent process? What might account for its intensity, duration, and geographical distribution? These are the questions that have guided this study. The search for answers to these queries has also led to the tasks of seeking a rigorous description of the phenomenon to be explained; of specifying the socio-historic context of La Violencia, with regard both to previous instances of social violence in Colombian history and to the evolution of the nation's basic social structures. This book is based on the first research project to deal with all of these questions and collateral task in an integrated fashion. The result of this approach has been the production of an approximate explanation of La Violencia that differs significantly from existing interpretations.

1980, 272 pp., $25.00
ISBN: 0-12-527750-4

The Politics of Workers' Participation

The Peruvian Approach in Comparative Perspective

By EVELYNE HUBER STEPHENS

A Volume in the STUDIES IN SOCIAL DISCONTINUITY Series

The book illustrates four politico-economic systems: liberal-pluralist, authoritarian-corporatist, bureaucratic-centralist and democratic-socialist. Four stages of workers' participation—origins, purpose and design, development and effects, and supportive policies—are distinguished, and dynamics in these stages are linked to the functioning of sociopolitical forces at both the national-political and enterprise levels.

1980, 304 pp., $29.50
ISBN: 0-12-666250-9

Future volumes in STUDIES IN SOCIAL DISCONTINUITY and STUDIES IN POPULATION are now available on a Continuation Order basis. Your Continuation Order authorizes us to ship and bill each future volume in the series automatically, immediately upon publication. This order will remain in effect until cancelled. Specify the volume title with which your order is to begin.

Send payment with order and save postage and handling.

Prices are in U.S. dollars and are subject to change without notice.

ACADEMIC PRESS, INC.

A Subsidiary of Harcourt Brace Jovanovich, Publishers

111 FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK, N.Y. 10003 • 24-28 OVAL ROAD, LONDON NW1 7DX

NOTES ON THE CONTRIBUTORS

OSCAR OSZLAK is the Director of the Centro de Estudios de Estado y Sociedad (CEDES) and a researcher at the Consejo Nacional de Investigaciones Científicas y Técnicas (CONICET), both in Argentina. He is also coordinador of the CLACSO Work Group on "Bureaucracy and Public Policy." His main works include Teoría de la burocracia estatal: enfoques críticos (1981), Diagnóstico de la administración pública uruguaya (1972), and the forthcoming Orden y progreso: la formación histórica del estado argentino.

TORCUATO S. DI TELLA teaches in the Post Graduate Program in Political Science sponsored by the Facultad Latinoamericana de Ciencias Sociales (FLACSO) in Buenos Aires. His major area of concern is the comparative study of political movements in Latin America, and his publications include Clases sociales y estructuras políticas (1974), La teoría del primer impacto del crecimiento económico (1965), and El sistema político argentino y la clase obrera (1964).

JOHN KING teaches Latin American cultural history in the School of Comparative American Studies at Warwick University. He is completing his doctoral research on the Revista Sur and is writing a history of the Arts Centres of the Di Tella Institute, Buenos Aires, in the 1960s.

JORGE CASTELLANOS is Professor of History at Marygrove College. He is the author of many books and articles on Cuban and Colombian social and ideological history. His latest book is La abolición de la esclavitud en Popayan, 1832–1852 (1980).

MIGUEL A. MARTINEZ is Associate Professor of Modern Languages at Loyola University of Chicago. His research interest is in the contemporary Latin American narrative. He is the author of several articles on Latin American and Spanish literature.

RENÉ CORTÁZAR is a doctoral candidate in economics at MIT and an economic research associate at CIEPLAN. He is currently working on a formal model explaining the functioning of the labor market in the short run in the Chilean economy.

JORGE MARSHALL is a full-time research economist at CIEPLAN and is presently at work on an empirical research project related to the Chilean economic stabilization experience of the 1970s.

PATRICIO MELLER is a senior economist at CIEPLAN and, for 1980–81, a Visiting Associate Professor at Boston University. His areas of research interest are Latin American employment problems and the role of multinational corporations in Latin America.

LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES ASSOCIATION

President, PETER H. SMITH, University of Wisconsin—Madison

Vice-President, JORGE DOMÍNGUEZ, Harvard University

Past President, CARMELO MESA-LAGO, University of Pittsburgh

Executive Director, CARL W. DEAL, University of Illinois

Executive Council

WAYNE A. CORNELIUS, University of California—San Diego

PATRICIA WEISS FAGEN, New College, San Jose State University

ABRAHAM F. LOWENTHAL, Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars

OSCAR J. MARTÍNEZ, University of Texas at El Paso

ALEJANDRO PORTES, Duke University

SUSAN KAUFMAN PURCELL, University of California—Los Angeles

Alternates

ARTURO MADRID, University of Minnesota

MARYSA NAVARRO, Dartmouth College

The Latin American Studies Association publishes the LATIN AMERICAN RESEARCH REVIEW to achieve greater and more systematic communication among individuals and institutions concerned with scholarly studies of Latin America.

The LATIN AMERICAN RESEARCH REVIEW was founded with the support of contributions from the sponsoring institutions and a supplementary grant from the Ford Foundation.

LARR Sponsoring Institutions

The Ford Foundation

The Hispanic Foundation

University of Alabama

The University of Arizona

University of California, Berkeley

University of California, Los Angeles

The City University of New York

Columbia University

The University of Connecticut

Cornell University

University of Florida

University of Houston

University of Illinois

Indiana University

The University of Kansas

Louisiana State University

University of Miami, Florida

The University of Michigan

Michigan State University

The University of New Mexico

New York University

The University of North Carolina

University of Notre Dame

The Ohio State University

University of Oregon, Eugene

University of Pennsylvania

The Pennsylvania State University

University of Pittsburgh

University of Puerto Rico

Southern Methodist University

Stanford University

State University of New York,

Stony Brook

The University of Texas, Austin

Texas Tech University

Tulane University

The University of Virginia

Washington University

The University of Wisconsin

Yale University

Volume XVI Number 3 will include:

"THE STRATEGIC DEPENDENCY OF THE CENTERS
AND THE ECONOMIC IMPORTANCE OF THE LATIN AMERICAN PERIPHERY"

by Heraldo Muñoz

"TRANSNATIONAL CORPORATIONS, DEPENDENT
DEVELOPMENT, AND STATE POLICY IN THE SEMIPERIPHERY"

by Gary Gereffi and Peter Evans

"WOMEN, PEONAGE, AND INDUSTRIALIZATION: ARGENTINA, 1810-1914"

by Donna J. Guy

"THE WAGES OF MODERNIZATION: A REVIEW
OF THE LITERATURE ON TEMPORARY LABOR
ARRANGEMENTS IN BRAZILIAN AGRICULTURE"

by William S. Saint

RESEARCH REPORTS AND NOTES

By *Jorge F. Pérez-López, James E. Hogan, William L.
Canak, Centro Paraguayo de Estudios Sociológicos*

COMMUNICATIONS

From *A. F. Aveni, R. Tom Zuidema, John H. Rowe,
James H. Street, James F. Petras, Robert J. Alexander*

REVIEW ESSAYS

By *Daniel H. Levine, Alejandro Portes,
E. V. K. FitzGerald, Eric N. Baklanoff, María
Patricia Fernandez Kelley, Georgette M. Dorn,
Rolf Sternberg*

