A bi-lingual journal for publications in academic philosophy and for theoretical work in other fields of interest to philosophers.

Academics in the humanities and social sciences routinely complain that there is no rapid dissemination of informed and informative opinion concerning publications in their fields. This is doubly unfortunate when more books than ever before are being published. Philosophers in particular need to be informed not only of work that is strictly philosophical but also of work which is primarily theoretical in nature in such areas as law, psychology, sociology, literary criticism, physics, medicine, linguistics and classical studies. C.P.R./R.C.C.P. is the first journal based in North America to aim systematically to meet that need. THE CLASSICAL WORLD

Since 1907 THE CLASSICAL WORLD has provided a combination of services and features which make the journal an indispensable instrument for teaching and research in the Classics. It is published six times yearly — from September to July.

Articles

Volume 79 will contain among others the following articles of scholarly and general interest to students of Graeco-Roman culture:

"Tragedy, Corporeality, and the Texture of Language: Matricide in the Three Electra Plays"; "The Laughter of the Suitors in Odyssey 20"; "Atticus and the Publication of Cicero's Works"; "The Language of Achilles: Construction vs. Representation"; "Caesar's Continuator and Caesar's Felicitas"; "Historical Topicality in Plautus"; and "Sophocles' Ajax in Context".

Complete and annotated bibliographical surveys of literature on authors, genres, and special areas are a continuing feature. Volume 79 will include part two of "Studies in Greek Athletics" as well as a full survey of currently available annotated textbooks, and a bibliographical survey of Neoanalysis.

Reviews

The Classical World specializes in brief and expert reviews of new books in all areas of classical antiquity. Volume 79 will feature approximately 120 such reviews.

Books Received

The journal offers extensive and immediate listings of all books received from publishers around the world with complete bibliographical information.

THE PHILOSOPHER'S INDEX

*An International Quarterly Index
To Philosophical Periodicals*

Expanded Coverage

The Philosopher's Index significantly expanded coverage in 1980. In the past, current issues of The Philosopher's Index indexed journal articles only. However, Volume XIV (1980) increased coverage to include original scholarly books in philosophy, plus bibliographies, translations, textbooks, dissertations, and anthologies. Contributions to anthologies are indexed as well as the work as a whole.

Special Editions

The Philosopher's Index: A Retrospective Index to U.S. Publications from 1940 and The Philosopher's Index: A Retrospective Index to non-U.S. English Language Publications from 1940 greatly enhance coverage of philosophy journals and books on a retrospective basis.
