OXFORD BIBLIOGRAPHIES

Celebrating 5 Years of Oxford Bibliographies in Classics

MINA
TIO-
MEA

YOUR BEST RESEARCH STARTS HERE

A project that started with you

In recent years, the explosion of original research and its increasing accessibility through new technologies is a blessing for researchers, but also a tremendous challenge.

Oxford Bibliographies in Classics was developed out of market research to address this problem by offering selective annotated research paths that are written by experts and which guide research by recommending the best sources on a topic.

"Oxford Bibliographies is 'right smack on' with its tiered levels of information, running from general to highly specialized...it doesn't get any better than a respected, well-known scholar selecting the best of the best."

Steven Ozment, MCLEAN PROFESSOR OF ANCIENT & MODERN HISTORY, HARVARD UNIVERSITY

In 2009 Classics started with: 45 articles.

In 2015 Classics has: 200+ articles.

Greece & Rome

Published for The Classical Association

Editors

John Taylor, Tonbridge School, UK
Vedia Izzet, University of Southampton, UK
Robert Shorrock, Eton College, UK

Greece & Rome is a journal which delivers scholarly research to a wider audience. It showcases original and informative articles on ancient history, literature, art, archaeology, religion, philosophy, and reception of the ancient world. Although its content reflects current research and its contributors include leading figures in the field, undergraduates and general readers who wish to be kept informed of current thinking will also find it engaging and accessible, as well as professional scholars in Classics and in other disciplines. With the wider audience in mind all Greek and Latin quotations are translated.

A subscription to Greece & Rome includes an annual supplement of New Surveys in the Classics.

The Journal of Roman Studies

Editor

Catherine W. E. Steel, University of Glasgow, UK

The Journal of Roman Studies (JRS) has appeared annually for a century, and is widely recognised as the premier UK journal in its field. Peer-reviewed papers on Roman history and Latin literature form the larger part of each issue. Papers on art history and archaeology are also published. JRS regularly includes major review articles and archaeological surveys, along with one of the widest selections of reviews of recent publications in all scholarly languages. The journal seeks to publish articles with wide implications for our understanding of the Roman world. JRS papers have stimulated debates in fields as diverse as Roman democracy, the scale of the Roman economy, the demographic implications of slavery, and the materiality of the book. Recent contributors have been drawn from all over Europe and North America. The journal has a wide international readership made up of scholars, students and members of the general public.

THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

The Classical Association has a worldwide membership and is open to all who value the study of the languages, literature, and civilisations of ancient Greece and Rome. It creates opportunities for friendly exchange and co-operation among classicists, encourages scholarship through its journals and other publications, and supports classics in schools and universities. Every year it holds an annual conference, and it sponsors branches all over the country which put on programmes of lectures and other activities.

The Classical Association has about 3,500 members. Members receive the Presidential Address once a year and a newsletter, CA News, twice a year. They may also subscribe at substantially reduced cost to the Classical Association journals Classical Quarterly, Classical Review, and Greece & Rome.

For more information and a membership application form please contact the Secretary, The Classical Association, Park House, 15–23 Greenhill Crescent, Watford WD18 8PH (tel. 01923 239300, e-mail: office@classicalassociation.org). The Secretary can also give information about the reduced journal subscription rates, and about the Association's other occasional publications.

THE CLASSICAL QUARTERLY

The Classical Quarterly has a reputation for publishing the highest quality classical scholarship for over 100 years. It publishes research papers and short notes in the fields of language, literature, history, and philosophy. Two substantial issues of The Classical Quarterly appear each year, in May and December. Given the quality and depth of the articles published in The Classical Quarterly, any serious classical library needs to have a copy on its shelves.

This journal issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board.

FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organization established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests.
