EUROPEAN POLITICAL SCIENCE REVIEW

"In one short year, the EPSR has established itself as one of the best outlets for innovative political research anywhere – not just in Europe, and not just about Europe. Its mixture of thoughtful essays and original research reports makes it a pleasure to read and learn from."

SIDNEY TARROW, CORNELL UNIVERSITY

Are you up to date with the original, wide-ranging and broad-minded articles published by EPSR?

If your library doesn't already have a subscription, you should encourage your librarian to subscribe so you, your colleagues and your students will all have access to this indispensable and stimulating source of new scholarship in all areas of political science.

Further information and an online library recommendation form can be found at the EPSR homepage: journals.cambridge.org/epsr

Perspectives on Politics

Published for the American Political Science Association

Editor

Jeffrey C. Isaac, Indiana University, USA

Perspectives on Politics seeks to provide a space for broad and synthetic discussion within the political science profession and between the profession and the broader scholarly and reading publics. Such discussion necessarily draws on and contributes to the scholarship published in the more specialized journals that dominate our discipline. At the same time, Perspectives seeks to promote a complementary form of broad public discussion and synergistic understanding within the profession that is essential to advancing research and promoting scholarly community.

Perspectives seeks to nurture a political science public sphere, publicizing important scholarly topics, ideas, and innovations, linking scholarly authors and readers, and promoting broad reflexive discussion among political scientists about the work that we do and why this work matters.

Perspectives on Politics is sold ONLY as part of a joint subscription with American Political Science Review and PS: Political Science & Politics.

Political Science Research and Methods

THE JOURNAL OF THE EUROPEAN POLITICAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION

Political Science Research and Methods (PSRM) is a general political science journal dedicated to publishing original scholarly work of the highest quality from all subfields of political science.

PSRM seeks research that applies rigorous methods to empirical or theoretical problems and promotes a rigorous scientific approach to the study of politics. Work at the intersection of political science and related disciplines such as economics and sociology is also welcomed.

notes for contributors

Manuscripts

The Editor welcomes the submission of materials for consideration as a main article or a review article. The approximate length required for main articles is 7,000 to 10,000 words, including notes. The Japanese Journal of Political Science is a refereed journal, and contributors should allow time for the process of refereeing to take place.

Manuscripts (MS-Word file) should be submitted electronically to the JJPS Editorial Office: jjpeditorial@cambridge.org

An abstract (no more than 250 words) together with a brief author profile (150 words or less) should accompany the submission. The author's name and affiliation must not appear on the main body of your manuscript, but only on a separate cover sheet. The desired location of tables and figures is to be indicated in the text, but all tables and figures are to be placed on separate sheets at the end of the article, following the notes and references. Tables and figures can be submitted in a separate file.

When an article has been accepted for publication after the process of review and revise, the author should submit a final version of the article in a Word file (MS-Word 2003 or later) to the editorial office of the Japanese Journal of Political Science as an e-mail attachment. All submissions must be typed in an unformatted Word document (no style is to be applied).

References and Notes

These are to be placed at the end of the submission, on separate sheets, and should be indicated serially within the article by superscript numerals. References should give full biographical details, including place of publication and the publisher, at first mention. Thereafter, the author's name and a short title should be used; op. cit. is not acceptable. A cross reference to the original citation (e.g., see n. 6 above) may also be added should the short title reference not be immediately clear. The title of articles should appear in single inverted commas, and the title of a book or journal should be in italics. Article and book titles in roman script are to be written as in the original. References and notes should be in the following form :

- 1 Robert Huckfeldt and John Sprague, Citizens, Politics and Social Communication (Cambridge: Cambridge University Press, 1995).
- 2 Ibid. p. 281.
- 3 T. J. Pempel and Keiichi Tsunekawa, 'Corporatism without Labor? The Japanese Anomaly', in Philippe Schmitter and Gerhard Lehmanbruch (eds.), Trends towards Corporatist Intermediation (Beverly Hills: Sage Publications, 1979), pp. 23–26.

- 4 New York Times, 13 May, 1987.
- 5 Lester C. Thurow, Zero Sum, p. 24.
- 6 Junko Kato, 'When the Party Breaks Up: Exit and Voice among Japanese Legislators', American Political Science Review, 92, pp. 857–870.
- 7 Inoguchi Takashi and Iwai Tomoaki, Zoku Giin no Kenkyu [Research on Tribe Diet Members], Tokyo: Nihon Keizai Shimbunsha, 1987.

(The basic rule is that when Chinese, Korean and Japanese write in their respective language, then surname comes first and given name comes last, when Chinese, Korean and Japanese write in English, then the surname comes last and given name comes first.)

Subheadings

Contributors are encouraged to include up to two levels of subheading in articles to provide signposts for readers. These should be typed flush left, with only the first word and proper names written with an initial capital letter.

General

First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the editor a current address and guarantee to return the corrected proofs, by e-mail where appropriate, within three days of receiving them.

Copying

The journal is registered with the Copyright Clearance Center, 222 Rosewood Drive, Danvers, MA, 01923, USA.

Organisations in the USA who are also registered with the CCC may therefore copy material (beyond the limits permitted by sections 107 and 108 of the US copyright law) subject to payment to CCC of the per-copy fee of $12.00. This consent does not extend to multiple copying for promotional or commercial purposes. Code 1468-1099/12 $12.00. Organisations authorised by the Copyright Licensing Agency may also copy material subject to the usual conditions. ISI Tear Service, 3501 Market Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19104, USA, is authorised to supply single copies of separate articles for private use only. For all other use, permission should be sought from Cambridge UK or the American Branch of Cambridge University Press.
