FOREWORD

THE society is indebted to the following members who, in addition to the Editorial Board, have read some of the material submitted for publication: Victor E. Graham, James Hutton, Horst W. Janson, John Mulder, Eugene F. Rice, Jr.

A general statement regarding the editorial policy of the Board will be found in the foreword to volume IV (1957) and in the minutes of the annual meetings of the Council. Briefly, the Board favors "studies which do not fall wholly within the scope of other scholarly journals, particularly the philological journals." Of particular interest are studies which clearly relate two areas of Renaissance culture.

The sixteenth volume of Studies in the Renaissance may be expected in the autumn of 1969. Members who wish to submit papers for the consideration of the Editorial Board are invited to do so without delay. Those received later than December can rarely be considered for the next year's issue. The Board expects manuscripts submitted to follow the prescriptions of the MLA Style Sheet.
