

ROMAN SOCIETY

Grants & Financial Support

Hugh Last and Donald Atkinson Funds

Applications for grants are invited for financial assistance towards the undertaking, completion or publication of work that relates to any of the general scholarly purposes of the Roman Society, which are to promote the study of the history, archaeology, literature and art of Italy and the Roman Empire, from the earliest times down to about A.D. 700. For further details of the types of project supported by the Society and eligibility of applicants, please see the website: <http://www.romansociety.org/about/grants/hugh-last-donald-atkinson-funds.html>

Applications, together with two references, should be made before 15 January and sent to the Secretary, Roman Society, Senate House, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU. It is the responsibility of applicants to arrange for their references to reach the Society by the same date; the absence of references may adversely affect the Committee's view of an application. Referees should — with the exception of applications from postgraduate students — come from outside the applicant's institution and not be connected with the project for which funding is sought.

Application forms may be obtained from the Secretary, or from the website: <http://www.romansociety.org/about/grants/hugh-last-donald-atkinson-funds.html>

Grants administered by the Schools Committee

Grants for Schools

The Society's Schools Committee makes grants to schools to help promote the teaching of Latin and Roman Studies. Most of the grants are awarded for the purchase of textbooks and other books on Roman topics, but the Committee also makes awards to groups, museums and schools organising lectures or study days on Roman themes. Applications from schools planning to start courses in Latin are particularly welcome.

The annual budget is c. £10,000, and the usual level of award is £50 to £500. The Committee meets three times a year. Applications should be sent to the Secretary, Roman Society, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU, or by email (office@romansociety.org) to arrive by 1 February, 1 July or 1 November in any year. There is no special application form, but applicants should provide information about the level of their departmental budget, the type of courses taught, and in the case of applications for books, a list of the books wanted with their prices.

Archaeological Fieldwork Bursaries

The Schools Committee of the Roman Society, in conjunction with the Roman Research Trust, invites applications for its Archaeological Fieldwork Bursaries for 16 to 18 year olds. These bursaries are made available partly by funding from the Roman Society, and partly by funding from the Roman Research Trust. All eligible applications will be considered for support from both funds; successful candidates will be told which fund their support comes from. The bursaries are designed to cover costs of up to £150 per week to enable applicants to participate on an archaeological project. The project should have some link to Roman Studies.

To apply candidates should contact first the director/principal investigator of the project they wish to join. The director should then write a short letter (no more than one side of A4) confirming his/her willingness to take the candidate on the project. This letter should also specify what and how training will be provided, noting the staff/supervisor: digger/student ratio. It should also confirm that the candidate, if accepted on the project, would be fully insured. Finally, a copy of the project risk assessment/health and safety guidelines should accompany the letter from the director.

The candidate should then send a copy of the director's letter and risk assessment, with a covering letter to Dr Fiona Haarer, Society for the Promotion of Roman Studies, Senate House, University of London, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU by 15 May 2014. The covering letter should outline the applicant's reasons for wishing to apply, their other sources of finance, and the amount requested. It should be clear from the letter exactly what costs the award is expected to cover. Candidates are advised that in the event of strong demand for these bursaries, it may not be possible to award grants to cover more than one week at a time.

Bursaries for Silchester will be administered directly by the Silchester Fieldwork Project and students need not apply individually to the Roman Society.

Information on fieldwork opportunities may be found at www.britarch.ac.uk or www.archaeology.co.uk/join-in/. Alternatively, candidates may seek information on opportunities in their local museum, library or university. The Roman Society is not able to make recommendations concerning individual projects.

Museum Internship Bursaries

The Society offers a number of bursaries of £250 to support students undertaking an internship in a museum. Internships are normally held sometime during the summer vacation; the exact length and timing is to be agreed between the successful candidates and museum. Museums which have hosted internships recently include the British Museum, Amgueddfa Cymru–National Museum Wales, the Great North Museum, the Manchester Museum, the Ashmolean Museum in Oxford, the Fitzwilliam Museum in Cambridge and Corbridge Roman site. Details of the museums participating in the 2014 scheme will be available on the Society's website from January.

All undergraduate and MA students are eligible to apply. Candidates should apply by letter setting out their reasons for wishing to undertake an internship and outlining any previous experience of working in a museum, and providing the name and email address of a referee. Letters of application should be addressed to the Secretary, Dr Fiona Haarer, and sent by email (office@romansociety.org) by 31 May 2014.

Hellenic and Roman Societies' Slides Collection

The slides collection contains over 6,700 coloured 35 mm slides covering a wide variety of subjects, including sites on the Greek mainland, the Greek islands, Cyprus, Rome, Italy and the Roman Empire, Etruscan tomb paintings, Greek vases, Roman frescoes and mosaics, the Roman army, and Roman Britain. Slides of artefacts form a large part of the collection and include bronzes, jewellery and vases as well as maps, plans, models and reconstructions. A subject index is available. A Greek slide catalogue is available at £7.50, a Roman slide catalogue at £6.50 or both for £12 (postage £1 extra for each catalogue).

Individual slides and sets with notes may be hired. Filmstrips are available for sale. Further details may be obtained from the Keeper of Slides or from the web-site: <http://library.icls.sas.ac.uk/slides-collection.htm>

The Society's website now hosts IMAGO, the Society's new online image bank developed from the Library slide collection: <http://www.romansociety.org/imago>. Images may be downloaded and the Society encourages members to add to the collection.

Committees

Archaeology Committee

The Archaeology Committee was formed in 1993. Its brief was to organise a regular conference to act 'as a forum where those interested in the archaeology of the Roman Empire and those more specifically concerned with Roman Britain' could come together. This initiative has led to a highly successful series of international conferences, held in the Universities of Reading, Nottingham, Durham, Glasgow, Leicester, Birmingham, London, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Oxford and Frankfurt.

The Committee also acts as a conduit through which the Society's advisory role in archaeological matters, as one of the national period societies, can be fulfilled. It considers reports and responds as appropriate.

The current members are: Dr P. Guest FSA (Chair), Dr A. Birley, Dr J. Creighton FSA (RAC Representative), Dr B. Croxford, Mr K. Fitzpatrick-Matthews, Mr N. Holbrook FSA, Dr F.
