EDITORIAL	2
Margarita Frederico
CHILD ABUSE AND THE LAW: THE AUSTRALIAN LAW REFORM COMMISSION'S APPROACH	3
John Seymour
In this paper the author discusses the Australian Law Reform Commission's recommendations with respect to laws relating to abused children and other children in need of care. The issues relating to compulsory reporting of incidents of child abuse are explored in this article.
PROPOSALS FOR LEGISLATIVE CHANGES IN RELATION TO NEGLECTED CHILDREN AND CHILD OFFENDERS IN TASMANIA	10
Kate Warner
The author explores proposals made by Tasmanian Committees on Child Welfare, which will form the basis for a Bill being drafted in Tasmania relating to children in need of care and young offenders.
CARING FOR ADOLESCENT VICTIMS OF SEXUAL ASSAULT	16
Royna Cooper and Carol Deller
The authors identify the treatment procedures for victims of sexual assault, and pay specific attention to the problems and needs of adolescent victims of sexual assault.
SELF HELP—PARENTS ANONYMOUS	20
Jeanette Uren
The author discusses problems parents who abuse (or fear they may abuse) their children have with professional workers. In addition, she describes the support available for parents from Parents Anonymous.
