NOTES TO CONTRIBUTORS

Modern Asian Studies is concerned with the history, geography, politics, sociology, literature, economics and social anthropology of South Asia, South-East Asia, China and Japan. Contributions should be based on original research or field-work.

All articles (text, notes and references) must be clearly typed in double spacing throughout, including footnotes, on one side only of the paper—preferably A4. Two copies should be submitted. Spelling, dates, references and footnote numbers should be checked for accuracy. The use of diacritical marks, italics and capital letters should be kept to a minimum. References repeated in the footnotes should be by author and short title; or the Harvard system of citation may be used.

The title of the article and the author's name and affiliation should be typed on a separate page at the beginning of the article.

Tables should be clearly laid out and numbered consecutively. Vertical lines between columns should be omitted. All figures and totals should be checked for accuracy.

Maps and figures should be clearly legible in every detail. The spelling of place names should be consistent with that used in the text.

Every table, map and figure should have a title and at least one reference in the text to indicate its location.

When an article has been accepted for publication, the author is strongly encouraged to send a copy of the final version on computer disk (Apple Macintosh or IBM compatible PC) together with the hard copy typescript, giving details of the wordprocessing software used (Microsoft Word, Word or Word Perfect). However, the publisher reserves the right to typeset material by conventional means if an author's disk proves unsatisfactory.

First proofs only will be sent to the author who will be expected to return them to the Editor within three days. Excessive alterations and additions may be charged to the author.

Each author will receive twenty-five free offprints of his or her article and a copy of the part of the journal in which it appears.

Submission of an article will be taken to imply that it has not been previously published and that it is not on offer to any other publisher. In the interests of authors, copyright is normally assigned to Cambridge University Press. The Editor welcomes expression of all shades of opinion, but responsibility for them rests with their authors.

All correspondence should be addressed to Dr Gordon Johnson, Wolfson College, Cambridge CB3 9BB, England.

The Mystery of Shen Dingyi in Revolutionary China

R. Keith Schoppa

Schoppa explores and analyzes the social and cultural dynamics of the Chinese revolution of the 1920s by focusing on the mysterious 1928 assassination of Shen Dingyi—revolutionary, landlord, politician, poet, journalist, educator, feminist, and early member of both the Communist and Nationalist parties.

Third World Quarterly

EDITOR

Shahid Qadir,

Royal Holloway, University of London, UK

Supported by an International Editorial Board

Third World Quarterly is the leading journal of scholarship and policy in the field of international studies. For almost two decades it has set the agenda on Third World affairs. As the most influential academic journal covering the emerging world, Third World Quarterly is at the forefront of analysis and commentary on fundamental issues of global concern.

Third World Quarterly provides expert and interdisciplinary insight into crucial issues before they impinge upon media attention, as well as coverage of the latest publications in its comprehensive book review section.

Third World Quarterly's original articles provide diverse perspectives on the developmental process and a candid discussion of democratic transitions, as well as identifying significant political, economic and social issues. Readable, free from esoteric jargon, informed without being abstruse, always authoritative and often provocative, Third World Quarterly covers the key North-South developments in the post-wall world.

SPECIAL ISSUES

Third World Quarterly annually commissions special issues on key concepts and processes. The 1995 Special Issue will be entitled Non-Governmental Organisations, the United Nations and Global Governance.

FORTHCOMING TOPICS IN 1995 INCLUDE:

James H. Mittelman, Rethinking the international division of labour

Chaim Kaufman, Conquer and divide: on the desirability and feasibility of outside intervention in ethnic conflict

Roger Charlton/Tony Clearberry/Roy May, NGOs and development in Africa: from 'Bingo' to 'Tango'

Robert Johansen, Enhancing enforcement: UN peacekeeping problems and prospects

Kweku Ampiah, Functional and dysfunctional corruption, Japan and Nigeria: a comparative approach

Nancy Spalding, The Tanzanian peasant and Ujamaa: a study in contradictions

Guang Hua Wan, Peasant flood in China: internal migration and its policy determinants

Mehran Kamrava et al., Rethinking the Third World

1995 - Volume 16 (4 issues). ISSN 0143-6597.
