

THE NUN'S ANSWER

by A Carmelite Nun

Many people ask what the life of a contemplative is like and why it is chosen—and stuck to. This is the nun's answer. One ordinary young woman tells the story of her entry into Carmel, of her uncertainties, doubts and discouragements which were finally resolved in the fulfilment of vocation. It is also an intensely human account of a Carmelite nun's daily life informed by humour, insight and the author's conviction that she 'has chosen the one possible thing'.

12s. 6d.

BURNS & OATES

Women whose lives are spent in caring for dependants, young or old, and those who are overworked or lonely from any cause, are invited to write to the honorary secretary of a small group of Catholic women.

The aim of the group is to explore and to put into practice ways and means of mutual help, and to develop opportunities where desired and possible for the individual member to serve the Mystical Body of Christ.

Older women, in particular, may find some definite sphere of usefulness by these means which in every instance are subjected to the approval of the parish priest.

WHAT ABOUT BECOMING A BROTHER?

With God's help you could do much for souls and bodies by joining the Hospitaller Brothers of St John of God

For full particulars write to:

Very Rev. Bro. Provincial, St John of God's Hospital, Scorton, Richmond, Yorks

FOR LENTEN READING

The Great Week

AEMILIANA LÖHR

'We hope that many ordinary readers will take The Great Week for Lenten meditation. . . . Deeper understanding of the Holy Week liturgy will go far to remedy some of the great weaknesses of modern spirituality: that we have almost ceased to feed upon symbols,' writes Dom Ralph Russell in the introduction to this commentary on the Masses of Holy Week. The book provides both a preparation for and an explanation of them. The author is a nun of the convent of Herstelle in Germany, a disciple of Dom Odo Casel of the Abbey of Maria Laach from which sprang much of the inspiration of the liturgical movement, including the recent reforms of the Holy Week liturgy, which are discussed in this book. 12s. 6d. net

Advance Notice

Julian of Norwich

The Teaching of a 14th-century Mystic

PAUL MOLINARI, S.J.

The 14th-century anchoress, Julian of Norwich, seems to have enjoyed a popular esteem for her 'good counsel' in spiritual matters, an appreciation which has endured. Her writings have been received with affection by succeeding generations, and this, not only in England. Through his analysis of her Revelations of Divine Love, the author has tried to see objectively what Julian thinks and teaches on the soul's ascent towards God.

JULIAN OF NORWICH

A Shewing of God's Love

SISTER ANNA MARIA REYNOLDS

Mother Julian wrote two separate accounts of her visions. This is the shorter and less well known version, which has not been available for many years. 9s. 6d. net

LONGMANS

PRINTED AT THE DITCHLING PRESS, DITCHLING, SUSSEX