

The deaths of the following were also reported:

FREDERICK P. RIENZI DE-SILVA, Director of Psychiatry, Southland Hospital, Invercargill, New Zealand.

RUDOLF KARL FREUDENBERG, formerly Physician Superintendent, Netherne Hospital, Coulsdon, Surrey.

MICHAEL MACK LIDGATE, formerly Consultant Psychiatrist, The General Hospital, Hartlepool, Cleveland.

JAMES ROBERTSON MONRO MACKIE, formerly Consultant Psychiatrist, Glenmillan House, Lumphanam, Aberdeenshire, Scotland.

EVELEEN O'BRIEN, formerly Senior Medical Officer of St Brendan's Hospital, Dublin, Eire.

GEORGE WILLIAM WATERS, formerly Physician Superintendent and Consultant Psychiatrist of Brandesburton Hospital, Brandesburton, Driffield, North Humberside.

Correction

We regret that the entry for Dr Wylie was incorrectly given, this should have read:

ELIZABETH JOYCE WYLIE, Consultant Psychiatrist, Claypenny Hospital, York.

Forthcoming Events

The Society for Psychosomatic Research will hold its annual conference at the Royal College of Physicians, London on 8 and 9 December 1983. The theme of the conference is 'Mind-Made Disease—But How?' The conference will be concerned with what might mediate or moderate between psychosocial stressor and organic disease and will look at research in the neural, endocrine or immunological fields as well as those health related behaviours (smoking, drug-taking) which may be relevant to organic disease. Anyone wishing to make a presentation at the conference should send a summary as soon as possible to Dr J. Connolly and Dr J. Gomez, Westminster Medical School, Department of Psychiatry, Queen Mary's Hospital, Roehampton, London SW15 5PN.

A one-day MRCPsych Final Examination Workshop will be held on 24 September 1983 at St Crispin Hospital, Northampton. Places will be limited. Information: Dr Ghadiali or Dr Sharma, St Crispin Hospital, Duston, Northampton NN5 6UN (Northampton (0604) 52323).

Cruse (National Organization for the Widowed and their Children) is organizing a major conference on 'Bereavement Following Violence' on 5 and 6 September 1983 at London University's Institute of Education. The conference is for those who work professionally with the dying and bereaved. Conference fee is £21. Information: Cruse, Cruse House, 126 Sheen Road, Richmond, Surrey TW9 1UR (01 940 4818/9047).

On 22 and 23 September 1983, in Manchester, there will be a multidisciplinary workshop/conference dealing with psychiatric treatment in the puerperium, emphasizing the use of psychological methods of treatment and the use of psychiatric mother and baby units. Conference fee £50. Information: Dr F. Margison, Consultant Psychotherapist,

Department of Psychiatry, Manchester Royal Infirmary, Swinton Grove, Manchester M13 0EU.

The Institute of Family Therapy has an extensive programme of courses/workshops planned for Autumn 1983. For details, send an s.a.e. to the Training Secretary, Institute of Family Therapy (London) Ltd, 43 Cavendish Street, London W1M 7RG (01 935 1656).

The Society for Reproductive and Infant Psychology will hold its annual conference from 21 to 23 September 1983 at the University of York. Information: Secretary, SRIP, Christopher Macey, Department of Psychology, Orchard House, South Rauceby, Sleaford, Lincs.

In association with the Institute of Group Analysis (London) there will be courses held in group work and family therapy in Oxford (September 1983–May 1984) and Northampton (October 1983–June 1984) on a weekly half-day basis. Course fee £190. Information: Course Secretary (Oxford), Ann West, Chaplains' Office, Littlemore Hospital, Littlemore, Oxford OX4 4XN; or Course Secretary (Northampton), Mrs Rose Fisher, Cheyne Walk Clinic, 3 Cheyne Walk, Northampton NN1 5PT.

The Centre for Postgraduate Psychiatry will be holding the following courses in the coming months: 'A Psychotherapeutic Approach to General Practitioner Problems'; 'Young People and Their Families—A Psychodynamic Approach'; 'Introductory Course to Family Therapy'; 'The Systematic Approach to Family Therapy'; there is also a 3-year, day release course for psychiatrists studying for the MRCPsych and open postgraduate meetings in child and adolescent psychiatry. All the courses are run under the auspices of the University of Birmingham. For further details contact: Christine Neal, Centre for Postgraduate Psychiatry, Uffculme Clinic, Queensbridge Road, Moseley, Birmingham B13 8QD (telephone 021 449 4481).