

CANADIAN ASSOCIATION FOR PUBLISHING IN PHILOSOPHY

invites applications for the position of
Editor of philosophy books

C.A.P.P. is planning to publish a series of philosophy books, of Canadian origin, for which an editor or group of editors is sought. The object of the series is to enable the publication of books which, although meritorious, are otherwise unmarketable because of very small potential sales. The prime editorial qualification needed is the ability to recognize merit in as many minor fields of philosophy as possible. A second requirement is that the philosophy department in which the editor(s) are members be willing to come to some agreement concerning the provisions of office overhead—i.e., editorial correspondence and distribution. It will not be essential for either the editors or their departments to be renowned; nor is previous editorial experience necessary. The editorial honorarium will, at least initially, be nil. The editors will be given maximum freedom within a broad editorial policy. C.A.P.P. will own, and be financially responsible for, the series. Further details on specific questions may be obtained from the Hon. Secretary. Applications from individuals or groups, giving all information considered relevant, should be sent to:

L'ASSOCIATION CANADIENNE DES PUBLICATIONS EN PHILOSOPHIE

invite des candidatures au poste de directeur
d'une série d'ouvrages philosophiques

L'A.C.P.P. se prépare à publier une série de livres de philosophie d'origine canadienne et est à la recherche d'un directeur ou d'un comité de direction. Le but de cette série est de permettre la publication de livres de grande valeur pour lesquels le marché est restreint. La qualité essentielle du directeur doit être de savoir reconnaître la valeur d'un texte en autant de champs philosophiques divers que possible. Une seconde condition à remplir est que le département de philosophie dont le directeur (ou le comité de direction) est membre soit prêt à en venir à une entente au sujet des frais supplémentaires de bureau, c'est-à-dire la correspondance et l'expédition. Il n'est pas nécessaire que les directeurs ou leurs départements soient déjà bien connus et que le futur directeur ait déjà de l'expérience à ce titre. Il n'y aura pas d'honoraires, au moins au début. On donnera une grande liberté d'action au directeur à l'intérieur d'une politique très large. L'A.C.P.P. sera propriétaire de la série et en sera financièrement responsable. Pour de plus amples renseignements sur les questions précises, veuillez vous adresser au secrétaire honoraire. Les candidatures, accompagnées des renseignements pertinents devront être envoyées à:

L'Association canadienne des publications en philosophie désire encourager les philosophes qui s'adonnent à la recherche portant sur les questions éthiques, sociales, juridiques et politiques ayant trait aux affaires publiques du Canada ou qui touchent de près à la vie canadienne. En conséquence, elle invite les philosophes à soumettre au Canadian Journal of Philosophy des travaux de recherche traitant de ces questions. Les normes habituelles de la revue serviront de critère d'évaluation pour ce qui est de l'acceptation de ces travaux. Si nous recevons un nombre suffisant d'excellents articles sur ces questions, ils seront publiés dans un numéro spécial de la revue.

The Canadian Association for Publishing in Philosophy wishes to encourage special attention by philosophers to the philosophical dimension of ethical, social, legal and political issues in Canadian public affairs or with particular reference to Canada. It therefore encourages submission to the Canadian Journal of Philosophy of research papers satisfying this general description. The acceptability of such papers will be judged in terms of the Journal's normal editorial standards. It is possible that if a sufficient number of a high quality are received, they will be published as a special issue.

Proof & Truth

Mathematical Logic for Non-Mathematicians

John Woods

A concise, lively introduction to contemporary logic for use primarily at the undergraduate level. Professor James Ford of Laurentian University says, "John Woods has provided a distinctive and useful approach to logic . . . a student who has been introduced to modern logic through this book will have no difficulty in relating its vocabulary and symbolism to more advanced standard works in the field . . . It is John Woods' contention that logic is interesting. It is, and can be seen to be so in the pages of Proof and Truth."

John Woods received his Bachelor's and Master's degrees at the University of Toronto and his Doctorate at the University of Michigan. He has been Visiting Scholar at Stanford University and is now teaching at the University of Victoria, Victoria, B.C.

Are you a reader of the:

International Philosophical Quarterly?

IPQ was founded to provide an international forum in English for the interchange of basic philosophical ideas between the Americas and Europe and between East and West. Its primary orientation is to encourage vital contemporary expression—creative, critical, and historical—of such ideas, stressing the intercultural tradition of personalist and theistic humanism, but also broadly hospitable to all schools of thought. Each issue contains at least one article by a European and one on oriental thought.

We are now in our 13th year of publication and for the last ten have been among the top dozen philosophical journals of largest circulation in the world, with subscribers in almost 100 different countries. Tune in on this vital organ of contemporary philosophical reflection.
