2020 APSA ANNUAL MEETING & EXHIBITION

SAN FRANCISCO, CA
SEPTEMBER 10-13

A wide-angle photograph of the Golden Gate Bridge in San Francisco, California, taken at dusk. The bridge's iconic orange-red towers and suspension cables are illuminated with warm lights, creating a strong contrast against the cool blue and purple tones of the twilight sky. The bridge spans across the water, with the city lights of San Francisco visible in the background. The overall mood is serene and majestic.

Philosophy of Perspectives on Politics

Perspectives seeks to nurture a political science public sphere, publicizing important scholarly topics, ideas, and innovations, linking scholarly authors and readers, and promoting broad reflexive discussion among political scientists about the work that we do and why this work matters.

A full-length copy of the journal's editorial philosophy appears in Perspectives on Politics 8(1): 7–10 and also on the web at <https://www.apsanet.org/perspectivesubmissions>.

Submission and Review

For submission guidelines, please see <https://www.apsanet.org/perspectivesubmissions>.

Our editorial team discusses all submissions. Those that seem promising are evaluated by several external reviewers—with full confidentiality on both sides—and then accepted, returned for further revisions, or declined with suggestions of more appropriate venues for publication.

About APSA

Founded in 1903, the American Political Science Association is the leading professional organization for the study of political science and serves more than 12,000 members in over 80 countries. With a range of programs and services for individuals, departments, and institutions, APSA brings together political scientists from all fields of inquiry, regions, and occupational endeavors within and outside academe in order to deepen our understanding of politics, democracy, and citizenship throughout the world.

The direct advancement of knowledge is at the core of APSA activities. We promote scholarly communication in political science through a variety of initiatives including publishing four distinguished journals: American Political Science Review, Perspectives on Politics, PS: Political Science & Politics, and the Journal of Political Science Education.

Resources to Amplify and Increase Student Engagement

Join APSA's RAISE the Vote Campaign

Share the work of political scientists to encourage student civic engagement

Contribute to the American Political Science Association's [APSA] RAISE the Vote Campaign, a nonpartisan initiative that aims to provide political science faculty with the tools needed to effectively encourage student registration, voting, and democratic engagement. RAISE stands for "Resources to Amplify and Increase Student Engagement." The campaign includes accessible blog post contributions from political scientists highlighting their research, teaching, and campus engagement related to civic engagement and voting.
