

51st Annual Meeting Microscopy Society of America

Cincinnati Convention Center
Cincinnati, Ohio
August 1 - 6, 1993

Cincinnati is a friendly and vibrant river city and an ideal convention spot, centrally located in the U.S. with direct airline connections to numerous cities around the world. The large, attractive Dr. Albert B. Sabin Convention Center is connected by a covered walkway to all the convention hotels in the heart of Cincinnati's lively downtown area on the banks of the Ohio River, where the Public Landing, the Serpentine Wall, and Bicentennial Commons are enjoyed by sightseers, sunbathers, music lovers, joggers and steamboat watchers. You will find that most of Cincinnati's attractions are easy to get to and easy to enjoy. The integration of the Convention Center Skywalk with more than 3,000 hotel rooms, department stores, banks, cinemas, restaurant shops, services, and a 1,000-car parking garage is a unique feature of the city. For reservations at several hotels that have offered discounts rates, you have but to complete the following:

All hotels below listed are near the Convention Center on the covered Skywalk system.

Guest room bookings at special convention rates are handled on a first-come, first served basis through the Cincinnati Housing Bureau. If your preferred accommodations are not available, they will make reservations at a comparable participating hotel. Telephone reservations are not accepted by the Bureau, but inquiries may be made to (513)621-2119 during Eastern Time business hours. The deadline for returning this form is July 1, 1993. After then, arrangements must be made directly with the hotels, and the quoted rates may not be available.

The Housing Bureau will acknowledge your reservation promptly and the hotel will confirm it separately. One night's rent is required as a deposit to guarantee the reservation. The deposit can be made either by furnishing credit card information on this form or by sending a check directly to the hotel.

To cancel or change reservations before July 1, write or phone the Housing Bureau. After July 1, contact the hotel directly. Hotels generally honor refund requests received at least three days before arrival.
