Journal of LAW and RELIGION

The Journal of Law and Religion publishes cutting-edge research on religion, human rights, and religious freedom; religion-state relations; religious sources and dimensions of public, private, penal, and procedural law; religious legal systems and their place in secular law; theological jurisprudence; political theology; legal and religious ethics; and more.

The Journal provides a distinguished forum for deep dialogue among Buddhist, Confucian, Christian, Hindu, Indigenous, Jewish, Muslim, and other faith traditions about fundamental questions of law, society, and politics.

New to Cambridge in 2015

British Catholic History

Published on behalf of the Catholic Record Society

Editor

Anne Dillon, Lucy Cavendish College, Cambridge, UK

British Catholic History (BCH) (formerly titled Recusant History), is committed to serving as a forum for innovative, vibrant, transnational, inter-disciplinary scholarly research on the history of Catholicism in the British Isles. Current and archival content will be available online for the first time from 2015. BCH publishes original research articles, review articles and shorter reviews of works arising from the best research on all aspects of British Catholic history from the 15th Century up to the present day. Given the multi-faceted nature of British Catholic history research, it provides both readers and authors a uniquely interesting lens through which to examine British and Atlantic history.
