

NEWS

✦ The Berkshire Conference of Women Historians will award its annual prizes for the best book and the best article in any field of history written by an American woman and published during 1982. Submissions for the book award should be sent to Jean Christie, 34 Bellingham Lane, Great Neck, New York 11023, and for the article award to Kim Phillips, Department of History, University of Connecticut, Avery Point, Groton, Connecticut 06340. Two copies of the book or article are required. Deadline for submission is February 1, 1983.

The Berkshire Conference also announces the inauguration of the Berkshire Summer Fellowship at the Mary Ingram Bunting Institute of Radcliffe College. The purpose is to provide financial support for summer research and writing. The stipend is $1,500 and may be held for one or two months, at the recipient's choice. The recipient will be the Berkshire Fellow at the Bunting Institute and must be in residence in Cambridge for not less than one month during the period June 15 to September 1. Office space, access to libraries and other facilities of Radcliffe and Harvard are provided. All women historians at the post-doctoral level are eligible. Applications will be judged on scholarly significance and quality of the research proposal. Application deadline for summer 1983 is February 15. Applicants will be notified by May 1, 1983. Inquiries and requests for application forms should be made to Linda Perkins, Assistant Director, Berkshire Fellow Program, The Mary Ingram Bunting Institute of Radcliffe College, 10 Garden St., Cambridge, Mass. 02138. Telephone (617) 495-8212.

✦ Die Stiftung Volkswagenwerk hat die Mittel zur Durchführung eines Gastdozenten-Programms "Emory German Studies" für die Jahre 1983-1985 bewilligt. Innerhalb dieses Programms sollen pro Jahr zwei deutsche Dozenten der Fächer Germanistik/Geschichte/Philosophie die Möglichkeit erhalten, an der Emory University, Atlanta, für je ein Semester über deutsche Kultur- und Geistesgeschichte zu lehren. Das Programm sieht Kurse innerhalb des Graduate Institute of the Liberal Arts der Emory University vor, die sich mit allgemeinen Tendenzen der deutschen Literatur, Philosophie und Geschichtsschreibung im 19. Jahrhundert sowie mit problem-geschichtlichen Längsschnitten und Einzelthemen, wie Romantik, Historismus, Naturwissenschaft und Technik, Politische Philosophie usw. befassen. Die Gastdozentur erstreckt sich auf die Monate September bis Mitte Dezember bzw. Mitte Januar bis Mitte Mai. Eine gewisse Flexibilität ist möglich, um den Anschluss an das jeweilige deutsche Semester zu erhalten. Das Goethe-Institut am Ort ist auf eine enge Kooperation mit den Gastdozenten eingestellt und vermittelt Vortragsreisen an Universitäten der engeren und weiteren Umgebung.

Voraussetzungen: Habilitation in den Fächern Germanistik/Geschichte/Philosophie; Forschungsschwerpunkt 19. Jahrhundert; völlige Beherrschung des Englischen als Unterrichtssprache; nach Möglichkeit Lehrerfahrung im englisch-sprechenden Ausland. Eine deutsche Kontaktstelle ist mit dem Institut für Philosophie der Ruhr-Universität Bochum, Professor Dr. Frithjof Rodi (Universitätsstrasse 150, 4630 Bochum 1) verbunden und erteilt auf Wunsch weitere Auskunft. Bewerbungen unter Angabe des gewünschten Zeitraumes können direkt an die Emory University z. H. von Professor Dr. R. Detweiler, ILA, und Professor Dr. R. Makkreel, Department of Philosophy, Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia 30322, USA, oder an die Kontaktstelle in Bochum gerichtet werden. (Da inzwischen durch die Auswahl-Kommission die Gastdozenturen bis einschliesslich Frühjahr 1984 vergeben wurden, sind Bewerbungen nur noch für den Zeitraum ab Herbst 1984 sinnvoll. Mit der Möglichkeit einer Verlängerung des Programms über 1985 hinaus kann gerechnet werden, was auch bei der Nennung von Terminwünschen berücksichtigt werden sollte.)

✎ “Condition and Consciousness,” an International Conference on German Women in the 18th and 19th Centuries, will be held April 15–17, 1983, at the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis. Contact: Leslie Denny, Program Coordinator, Department of Conferences, 220 Nolte Center, 315 Pillsbury Drive, S.E., University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, MN 55455; (612) 373-5325.

✎ There will be an International Conference on “Women, Fascism, Everyday Life,” on April 28–30, 1983, at Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio. Participants: Christa Wolf, Annemarie Tröger, James Steakley, Roberta Steinbacher, Leila Rupp, George Mosse, Jost Hermand, Jeffrey Herf, Miriam Hansen, Atina Grossman, Ingeborg Drewitz, Jessica Benjamin, Evelyn Beck. For registration and further information contact Professor Helen Fehervary, Department of German, OSU, Columbus, Ohio 43210.

✎ The second History Conference of Hudson Valley Colleges and Universities will be held at Bard College on Saturday, October 22, 1983. The conference will include about twelve morning and afternoon panels, lunch and dinner, and two keynote speakers. Nine of the panels will be organized around the following themes:

1. New Approaches to Ancient History
2. Science and Society Before the Industrial Revolution
3. Politics in the Weimar Republic
4. Regional American History
5. Roosevelt and His Foreign Policy

6. A Social History of the Church
7. The History of Building Structure
8. Teaching the History of Minorities and Women
9. History of Psychiatry

Those interested may write Professor Alice Stroup, Department of History, Bard College, Annandale-on-Hudson, New York 12504. Information about the program will be sent during the spring of 1983.

 The eighth annual meeting of the Social Science History Association will be held October 27–30, 1983, at the Shoreham Hotel in Washington, D.C. Those wishing to organize a panel, present a paper, chair a session, serve as a discussant, or offer suggestions for the program are invited to contact the Program Committee Chair: Olivier Zunz, Department of History, Randall Hall, University of Virginia, Charlottesville, Virginia 22903; or contact Co-chair Barbara A. Anderson, Department of Sociology, Box 1916, Brown University, Providence, Rhode Island 02912.

Panels which include members from various disciplines will be viewed most favorably. Submission of papers dealing with the history of non-Western societies is also encouraged. Proposals for entire panels usually will consist of two or three papers and one or two discussants. Panels may also be in the form of roundtable discussions. Submit a brief vita for each roundtable member. Proposals for individual papers should include a one-page precis and a brief vita. All proposals must be received no later than February 22, 1983.

 The Association for the Bibliography of History, in conjunction with the Department of History and the Lauinger Library at Georgetown University, has organized the National Registry for the Bibliography of History. The registry will collect, record, and disseminate information about bibliographic projects in all fields of history, unpublished or in progress, in the United States and Canada. The center will maintain a file of reported projects, and from time to time as appropriate, will publish lists of work in progress and completed. For further information, and for a form upon which a bibliographic project may be reported, write to the director of the Registry, Thomas T. Helde, Department of History, Georgetown University, Washington, D.C. 20057.

 The Seventh Annual Meeting of the Western Association for German Studies will be held in Madison, Wisconsin, from September 30 to October 1, 1983. The University of Wisconsin/Madison will host the conference. The Association welcomes papers in history, literature, politics, geography, art, music, and other fields relating to German-speaking Europe. Proposals for papers or entire sessions should be sent with abstracts to the Program Director, Professor Harry Ritter, Department of History, Western Washington University, Bellingham, WA 98225, by April 1, 1983.