Journal of Religious History

Edited by Hilary M. Carey

The Journal of Religious History is the most comprehensive journal of its kind. Since 1960 it has been a vital source of high quality information for all those interested in the place of religion in history. With high quality international contributors, the journal covers a uniquely broad range of topics in religious history - encompassing a variety of geographical areas and a wide range of cultures and historical periods. The journal explores debate on comparative method and theory in religious history and includes an extensive book review section.
