

CHANGE IN POLICY

To authors and readers:

Because of our extensive backlog of articles, the constant flow of new manuscript submissions, and your interest in a wide variety of topics, we must announce:

Church History will no longer consider for publication any article of more than 25 pages in length double-spaced, including footnotes. Left margins should measure one and one-half inches.

The Editors

Salvation in New England

Selections from the Sermons of the First Preachers

Edited by Phyllis M. Jones and Nicholas R. Jones

The earliest Puritan sermons have as a rule been available only in rare-book collections. The selections in this volume are the work of the first-generation preachers who emigrated to Massachusetts Bay during the 1630s. In addition to the critically edited texts, the authors provide a discussion of the role, history, structure, style, and subject matter of early New England sermons.

211 pages, $12.95

University of Texas Press
Box 7819
Austin, Texas 78712

SPOTLIGHTS ON CHURCH HISTORY

Major Black Religious Leaders: 1755-1940

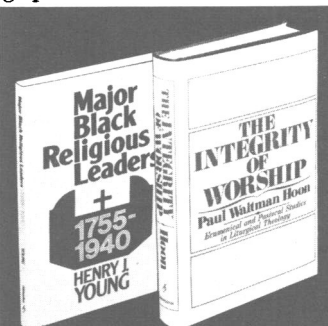

This exciting, historical book presents the theological reasonings, religious philosophies, and biographies of Nathaniel Paul, Nat Turner, Marcus Garvey, and nine other major black religious leaders who helped to shape the development of black religion in America. Henry J. Young. $5.95, paper

The Integrity of Worship

This is one of the most important studies on the theological and historical foundations of worship available today!

"A balanced treatment of worship . . . preserves a richness and depth in our conception of worship which a more simple method would sacrifice or obscure . . ."—John Knox

" . . . a textbook for basic courses in worship in schools and seminaries."—Journal of the American Academy of Religion
Paul Waitman Hoon. $12.95

abingdon

at your local bookstore