NATURE AND GRACE

Karl Rahner, S.J.

8/6

In the two studies in this small volume the author deals first with the disastrous split between Christian thinking and the natural world of our experience. In the second he is concerned with the temptation presented to the Church to emulate the techniques of modern despotism.

IN THE REDEEMING CHRIST

F. X. Durrwell, C.S.S.R.

Durrwell made his name in this country as a nouvelle vague theologian with his big book, The Resurrection. Here he extends many of his original ideas in terms suitable for popular consumption.

THE PSYCHOLOGY OF SEX INSTRUCTION

H. M. Dresen-Coenders

8/6

A distorted morality of sex has produced many blind alleys for Christians. This book sets out to by-pass them and to show the rôle which sex plays in the development of the whole person. It is a book intended for all Christians concerned in any way with the problem of sex instruction.

CULTURE AND LITURGY

Brian Wicker

11/6

Wicker examines the way in which a living liturgy can help the Christian to belong firmly within the natural community of the world. It is concerned to destroy the common Christian picture of religion as a tidy little compartment.
