31-34 GORDON SQUARE, LONDON, WC1H 0PP

President: PROFESSOR K. J. DOVER, F.B.A.

The Society, founded in 1879 to advance the study of Greek language, literature, history and art, maintains conjointly with the Society for the Promotion of Roman Studies and in association with the Institute of Classical Studies of the University of London

Four general meetings, with lectures, are held in London annually, and there are other meetings in different parts of the country.

Subscribers receive free the Society's two annual publications: The Journal of Hellenic Studies, one of the foremost British periodicals in the field of Greek scholarship, containing articles, illustrations and book reviews; Archeological Reports, a fully illustrated account of fresh discoveries in Greece and Greek lands, with bulletins announcing important new acquisitions by museums in Britain.

These two periodicals are on sale to the general public at £4.50 and £0.75 respectively.

The Society for the Promotion of Roman Studies

31-34 GORDON SQUARE, LONDON, WC1H 0PP

President: DR. A. H. McDONALD, F.B.A.

The Society was formed in 1910 to promote the study of the archaeology, art, literature, and history of Italy and the Roman Empire down to about the year A.D. 700, by publishing journals, forming a library, and holding meetings.

The Journal of Roman Studies is published annually and contains articles written by leading British and foreign scholars and reviews of recent publications. It is abundantly illustrated. The Society also publishes Britannia, devoted to Romano-British and connected studies, to which the annual survey of Romano-British excavations, previously published in the Journal is now transferred. The survey continues to be available as an offprint.

The Society maintains, in conjunction with the Hellenic Society, a joint library of works on classical antiquity and a collection of lantern slides. Members are entitled to borrow books and slides, which can be sent to them by post, and may also consult books in the library of the London University Institute of Classical Studies, which is complementary to that of the Societies.

The annual subscription is £3 which entitles members to one of the journals, or £5.50 for both. Institutions, except schools, pay the full rate for the two. Life membership for those of 65 or over £15. Student-associates £1.50. Non-members £4 for each journal (all rates subject to revision).

All inquiries should be addressed to the Secretary. Telephone 01-387-8157.

THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

The main aims of the Classical Association are to promote and sustain interest in classical studies, to maintain their rightful position in universities and schools, and to give scholars and teachers opportunities of meeting and discussing their problems. It organizes an annual conference, lasting four or five days, in a university centre, and sponsors thirty-one branches, most of which hold Greek and Latin Reading Competitions for Schools. Its activities are fully reported in its annual Proceedings, issued free to all members.

The present membership of the Association is approximately 4,500. Membership is open both to individuals and to institutions at an annual subscription of 25p. (Life composition for individual members £5.25). Members may obtain the Classical Review and Classical Quarterly at reduced prices (Review, £2.25; Quarterly, £2.00; combined subscription £3.87½). Greece and Rome may also be obtained through the Association for an annual subscription of £1.75. Applications for membership and subscriptions for the journals (which should normally be received by January 31st in each year) should be addressed to the Hon. Treasurer, Professor L. A. Moritz, University College, Cardiff.

The Association can also supply copies of the Index to the First Series of the Classical Review (price £1.25 for members, £1.50 for non-members, post free) and of the last two issues of The Year's Work in Classical Studies, covering the years 1939-45 and 1945-7 (price £0.30 each volume, post free). These publications and details of the various occasional publications of the Association, including all Supplements to Greece and Rome, are obtainable from the Hon. Treasurer or from Mr. R. G.
