

Important Reading From Thomas Nelson & Sons

ECUMENICAL BEGINNINGS IN PROTESTANT WORLD MISSION:

A History of Comity

by R. Pierce Beaver. Explains and traces the practice by which missionary societies of various denominations divide their spheres of influence within their territories. Describes its intent and how it has served as a basis for interdenominational cooperation, forerunner to today's ecumenical movement. $5.00

ARCHAEOLOGY AND THE OLD TESTAMENT WORLD

by The Reverend Dr. John Gray. A study, based on recent discoveries in archaeology, designed to introduce students, clergy, and interested laymen to the mind of ancient Israel in her historical environment. $6.50

DICTIONARY OF ECCLESIASTICAL TERMS

by The Reverend Canon J. S. Purvis.

Over a thousand terms in one concise volume. Longer entries deal with matters of wide and general importance, often neglected in books of this kind. $6.50

NELSON'S LIBRARY OF THEOLOGY

General Editor: H. H. Rowley, University of Manchester. Associate Editor: C. W. Dugmore, University of London, King's College.

A new series, covering all branches of theological learning, designed for those interested in modern knowledge and thought in the field of theology. The first volume is:

THE WORK OF CHRIST

by Robert S. Franks. A re-issue of an important, long out-of-print work, offering a masterly survey of the history of the doctrine of the Work of Christ. $6.50

THOMAS NELSON & SONS

18 East 41st Street
New York 17, New York

SELECTED NEW BOOKS FROM ABINGDON

THE DYNAMICS OF CHURCH GROWTH

J. Waskom Pickett. Using illustrations from his own experiences, Bishop Pickett shows how Christian missions, reinforced with social concern, can minister to many groups in the face of odds. An encouraging book for the mission field today. 128 pages. $2.50

REPRESENTATIVE VERSE OF CHARLES WESLEY

Edited by Frank Baker. Charles Wesley was one of England's most prolific poets. From approximately 9,000 hymns and religious poems, the editor has chosen 335 examples representing the various metres he employed. For lovers of poetry and hymns, and for researchers of John and Charles Wesley. 480 pages. $11

Order from your bookstore

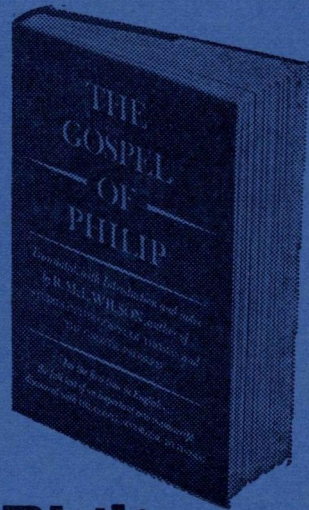

ABINGDON PRESS

Publisher of The Interpreter's Dictionary of the Bible and The Interpreter's Bible

American Society of Church History
321 Mill Road
Oreland, Pa.

SECOND CLASS POSTAGE PAID
AT BERNE, INDIANA

THE FIRST PUBLICATION IN ENGLISH OF A NEW "GOSPEL" uncovered in the same tomb in Egypt as one of the 49 hitherto unknown Gnostic works contained in 13 leather-bound codices in the Nag Hammadi tomb. As the Dead Sea Scrolls illuminated the Biblical period, so this library of a second-century Gnostic congregation is crucial for the early history of the church. Dr. Wilson's translation, from the photographic edition of the Coptic text, is as literal as possible. He also provides a perceptive introduction and running commentary for this important sourcebook. $3.75

The Gospel of Philip

By R. McL. WILSON
UNIVERSITY OF ST. ANDREWS

HARPER & ROW, Publishers, New York 16