Join us in Seattle!

Join APSA in Seattle to address the latest scholarship in political science and to explore this year's theme "The Politics of Rights." APSA and the 2011 Program Chairs Frances Hagopian, Harvard University, and Bonnie Honig, Northwestern University, encourage you to attend the 2011 APSA Annual Meeting in Seattle, Washington.

JOIN THE CONVERSATION

Nearly 7,000 political scientists will gather in Seattle to exchange ideas. Take advantage of more than 800 sessions per day.

LOCATION, LOCATION

Seattle boasts a unique combination of vibrant, urban attractions surrounded by incredible natural beauty. Whether it's shopping, dining and the arts you seek, or, waterways, national parks, and mountain peaks, it's all waiting for you there. Visitors to Seattle can also easily access everything from museums and open markets to a temperate rain forest and world-class wine region.

LEARN MORE

About APSA

Founded in 1903, the American Political Science Association is the leading professional organization for the study of political science and serves more than 15,000 members in over 80 countries. With a range of programs and services for individuals, departments, and institutions, APSA brings together political scientists from all fields of inquiry, regions, and occupational endeavors within and outside academe in order to expand awareness and understanding of politics.

The direct advancement of knowledge is at the core of APSA activities. We promote scholarly communication in political science through a variety of initiatives including publishing three distinguished journals: American Political Science Review, Perspectives on Politics, and PS: Political Science and Politics.
