Canada's great timber resources are the foundation of its great pulp and paper
industry in which we for 100 years have been proud participants, manufacturing a wide range of paper and paper products for many industrial, business and household uses.

Taxation of Corporate Income in Canada

By J. R. PETRIE

A thorough, comprehensive, reliable book, sponsored by the Canadian Tax Foundation. It examines the really significant problems in the present method of taxing corporate income and dividends in Canada, the economic effects of this method under the present rate structure, and the remedy for this situation. $7.00

The Canadian Grain Trade, 1931-1951

By D. A. MacGIBBON

This book traces in an accurate and objective manner the sequence of events during the last twenty years which have influenced the organization of the Canadian grain trade. It describes the shift from free trading on the open market to compulsory marketing through the Canadian Wheat Board, the dramatic recovery of the Pools, and other momentous changes. $4.50

Democratic Government and Politics

By J. A. CORRY

The completely revised and enlarged edition (1951) of a book which has become a standard work on comparative government. This edition brings up to date the material on institutions and practices of government in Britain, the United States, and Canada, and analyses more fully the relationship of democratic institutions and practices to the essentials of the democratic creed. Trade edition, $6.00; educational edition, $5.00

The Bias of Communication

By HAROLD A. INNIS

Professor Innis shows that modern media of communication reveal our lack of any general principles by which we can unify our vast civilization and assure its continuity. He finds the only solution to the dilemma in sound intellectual training to establish a sense of continuity and human dignity. Trade edition, $4.50; educational, $3.75
