SOCIETY FOR AMERICAN ARCHAEOLOGY
SAA PAPERS SERIES
SOLICITATION OF MANUSCRIPTS

The SAA Papers is an occasional publication series sponsored by the Society for American Archaeology. It is designed to publish significant research which, because of its length, is not suitable for publication in American Antiquity. The series is edited by Robert C. Dunnell, and all correspondence pertaining to publication in the series should be directed to him at the Department of Anthropology DH-05, University of Washington, Seattle, WA 98195. The Special Publication editorial committee also includes Dr. Christopher Peebles, Dr. Bruce G. Trigger, and Dr. Barbara Voorhies, with Dr. Dena Dincauze acting in an ex officio capacity.

Monograph length manuscripts, either monographs or edited collections, are solicited in any field in American archaeology. Both substantive contributions and those with methodological or theoretical content will be considered. Although the editor and committee are desirous of working with potential authors/editors in developing manuscripts, no decision to publish will be made until a completed manuscript has been reviewed. Initial proposals should include: (1) an outline or detailed table of contents; (2) a synopsis of the proposed manuscript or, if composed of a series of individually authored papers, 500-word abstracts for each of the papers; (3) technical data including the projected length of the manuscript, number of figures, number of photographs, any special requirements, etc.; (4) a brief statement (4-5 pages) that demonstrates the significance and general relevance of the topics; (5) the author's/editor's vita. This information must be supplied in four copies. Manuscript, when requested, will also be required in four copies.

Materials will be considered by the committee year-round; however, production schedules are such that new numbers of the SAA papers will probably appear in the autumn.

Each recommendation should be supported by a statement thoroughly documenting the achievements of the nominee. Mail prior to October 31, 1982, to Dr. John D. Speth, Chairman, DSA Committee, Department of Anthropology, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, MI 48109.
