Dear Colleague/Subscriber:

The Journal of Interamerican Studies and World Affairs has some important news for you.

Beginning with our February 1985 issue, the Journal will give greater editorial emphasis to foreign policy issues affecting North and South America and the Caribbean Basin. The February issue itself is a particularly important one. Edited by professor Federico Gil, it brings together articles on contemporary U.S.-Latin American problems. We feel it is a timely and important issue.

We also wish to announce that, beginning with the February 1985 issue, the Journal will be published by the University of Miami and will no longer be handled by Sage Publications, Inc.

We ask your help in facilitating this transition.

If you are a subscriber, please contact us immediately so that we may provide you with uninterrupted service. For this purpose please fill out the enclosed coupon and return it to us as soon as possible.

If you are not now a subscriber but are interested in becoming one, please read the enclosed flyer describing our new issue. If you would like to subscribe personally or to have your library subscribe, send us the enclosed coupon with your check or money order at the special subscription rate of $22 per year for individuals or $44 per year for institutions. You will find that the Journal provides a thoughtful, stimulating and informative reading experience.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Jaime Suchlicki
Editor
