

MEMBERSHIP AND SUBSCRIPTION

1. Any person desirous of becoming a Fellow or Member must be nominated by one Member and seconded by another, of whom one must act on a personal knowledge that the candidate is likely to be a suitable and useful Member; and the nominating Member shall address the Secretary in writing and give the candidate's name, address, and occupation, or status, and shall state to which class the candidate desires to be admitted. Provided always that in the case of persons domiciled abroad, it shall be within the power of the Council on being satisfied as to the credentials of any particular candidate, to dispense with these conditions.

2. The annual subscriptions for each class of Member is:—

	£	s.	d.
Fellows, wherever resident, and Members resident in the London postal area . . . . .	3	3	0
Members residing in the British Isles outside the London area . . . . .	2	2	0
Members residing abroad . . . . .	1	10	0

3. The Annual Subscription for Associates is:—

	£	s.	d.
Library Associates . . . . .	1	10	0
Student Associates . . . . .	10	6

4. A Fellow or Member may compound for all future annual subscriptions by paying in lieu thereof one sum calculated according to his or her age and category as follows:—

- Under 40 years of age: Eleven times the annual subscription.
- Between 40 and 60 years of age: Nine times the annual subscription.
- Over 60 years of age: Seven times the annual subscription.

5. The first payment of subscription is due on election, but if a candidate be elected in November or December of any year, the first annual subscription paid by him shall cover the year beginning on the 1st January next after his election.

6. Annual subscriptions shall be due on the first day of January of each year.

When a candidate is proposed for election, this form should be completed in block letters and sent to the Secretary, Royal Asiatic Society, 56 Queen Anne Street, London. W. 1.

How to study and write Chinese characters

With an Analysis of the 1,200 Chinese Basic Characters

By W. SIMON, Dr.Phil., D.Lit., F.B.A.

Professor of Chinese in the University of London

Second Revised Edition

This complementary volume to the '1,200 Chinese Basic Characters' enables the student to study the Chinese script without the aid of a teacher. Each of the 1,200 basic characters is fully analysed and the analysis gives the student not only an insight into the structure of the characters but enables him at the same time to write them in the proper order of strokes.

The second edition has been considerably enlarged. The readings of the Radicals and the Basic Characters are given in both Gwoyeu Romatzyh and Cantonese so as to make the book equally accessible to the student of either language.

A special Appendix is devoted to the most recent development in the Chinese Latin Script (Hanyu—Pinyin—Fang'an—Hannyeu—Pinin—Fangann).

The Junkman Smiles

G. R. G. WORCESTER

Mr. Worcester was for many years in the River Inspectorate of the Chinese Maritime Customs. His work of river surveying took him almost all over Central China, and in the course of his career he also visited Southern China and Formosa for the purpose of observing the local junks. He thus became eventually a specialist on nautical research in China. His fascinating book about the China he knew describes a way of life as strange as it is ancient, and in the course of doing so provides a rich feast of humanity, of curious customs and pursuits, described with humour and sympathy, and illustrated with his own delightful drawings. 21s. net.
