

Constructive Interpretation of the Christian Tradition

Engaging Theology Catholic Perspectives

Tatha Wiley, Series Editor

Drawing on the wisdom and teaching experience of highly respected theologians, the Engaging Theology series builds a firm foundation for graduate study and other ministry formation programs. Each of the six volumes—Scripture, Jesus, God, Discipleship, Anthropology, and Church—is concerned with retrieving, carefully evaluating, and constructively interpreting the Christian tradition. Comprehensive in scope and accessibly written, these volumes (used together or independently) will stimulate rich theological reflection and discussion.

NEW and Noteworthy

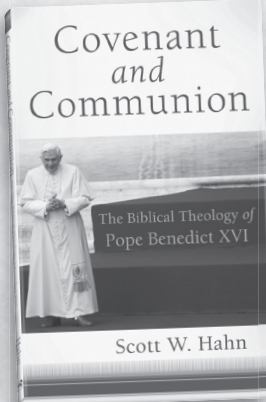

Secret Faith in the Public Square

AN ARGUMENT FOR THE CONCEALMENT OF CHRISTIAN IDENTITY

Jonathan Malesic

9781587432262
256 pp. • $27.99p

"Malesic's thesis is striking and provocative: we should conceal our faith in order to protect it from being absorbed and prostituted in our voracious secular culture. Readers may not be persuaded, but by the end of the book they will find themselves richly rewarded with many fresh insights into the possibilities for Christian witness in our strange, postmodern era. A truly fresh contribution to the important debate about faith, politics, and culture."—R. R. Reno, Creighton University

Covenant and Communion

THE BIBLICAL THEOLOGY OF POPE BENEDICT XVI

Scott W. Hahn

9781587432699
208 pp. • $21.99c

"Covenant and Communion is a compelling manuduction right into the very core of Pope Benedict XVI's theological vision. In this clearly written and cogently argued essay, Hahn makes a convincing and highly pertinent case for what Pope Benedict holds to be the crucial challenge for the Church and theology today—the reunification, and thereby the renewal, of exegesis theologically conceived and theology exegetically grounded. . . . Theologically insightful and surefooted, this book is one of the best and certainly the most timely and urgent among the recent introductions to the theology of Pope Benedict XVI."—Reinhard Hütter, Duke Divinity School

God in Dispute

"CONVERSATIONS" AMONG GREAT CHRISTIAN THINKERS

Roger E. Olson

9780801036392
304 pp. • $24.99p

"Most textbooks that trace the development of historical theology provide us with content, unpacking the positions of theologians and major schools of thought. While Olson's book does that, it also does much more. By bringing generations of Christian thinkers together in dialogue to discuss a number of topics, Olson helps us understand that the Christian tradition is a complex, lively, ongoing argument about what happened in Jesus Christ. . . . This is a unique text that makes historical theology come alive."—Dennis Okholm, Azusa Pacific University
