Erratum

1. In the paper "Vein of Galen Malformation with Cerebral Calcification: A Reversible Cause of Neurodegenerative Disease" by Stephen J. Phillips, Joseph M. Dooley and Peter R. Camfield which appeared in the May 1986 issue (1986; 13: 103-106) the second sentence of the introduction should have read: "The age and mode of presentation of this vascular anomaly are largely determined by the magnitude of the arteriovenous shunt. Massive shunting causes high output congestive cardiac failure and cranial bruit in the neonatal period.²⁻⁴"

In addition Figures 2 and 3 were inadvertently printed upside down.

2. In the review of the book "Textbook of Neurological Nursing" which appeared in the February 1986 issue (1986; 13: 75), the authors' names should read Phyllis J. Pallett and Mary T. O'Brien.
