The Belt and Road Initiative

Law, Economics, and Politics

Edited by Julien Chaisse, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, and Jędrzej Górski, The Chinese University of Hong Kong

This 28-chapter volume provides a comprehensive legal, economic and political analysis of the Belt and Road (BRI) initiative that has emerged since 2013 as the major facet of China's international economic policy.

"This book is essential reading for anyone who wants to better understand the Belt and Road Initiative and how it will define law, economics, and politics in the years to come."

Ius Doni in International Law and EU Law

Christian H. Kälin,
Henley & Partners

In this book, Dr. Christian H. Kälin establishes the concept of ius doni as one of the latest trends of acquisition of citizenship by investment, quickly spreading among states.

"A global trend, and quickly spreading among states, is the allocation of citizenship to individuals who make a contribution to the economy and society by way of investment or donation. As a forward-thinking government, we welcome this pioneering academic study, which, besides offering theoretical underpinnings of ius doni, creates the necessary foundation for solid government policy in this field."
Hon. Dr. Joseph Muscat, Prime Minister of Malta

"Citizenship by investment marks one of the latest but certainly not the final stage of evolution in the methods of acquiring citizenship. Clarification of this concept in general, and answers to key questions are either missing in academic literature or have not been sufficiently addressed. In this remarkable book, Dr. Chris Kälin provides a thorough analysis and answers in what can be considered the standard work on the subject."

ASIL STUDIES IN INTERNATIONAL LEGAL THEORY

The purpose of the ASIL Studies in International Legal Theory is to clarify and improve the theoretical foundations of international law. Too often the progressive development and implementation of international law has foundered on confusion about first principles. This series raises the level of public and scholarly discussion about the structure and purposes of the world legal order and how best to achieve global justice through law. This series grows out of the International Legal Theory project of the American Society of International Law. The ASIL Studies in International Legal Theory deepen this conversation by publishing scholarly monographs and edited volumes of essays considering subjects in international legal theory.

CONGRATULATIONS!

We salute Professor Hannah Buxbaum on her election to the Curatorium of the Hague Academy of International Law. The Curatorium determines the scientific policy and activities of the Academy, designs its programs, and chooses lecturers for its renowned courses on international law. No more than one member at a time from any given country may serve on the Curatorium.

Professor Buxbaum is a distinguished expert on international law and international litigation and jurisdiction. She holds the John E. Schiller Chair on Legal Ethics at the IU Maurer School of Law and was appointed IU's vice president for international affairs in 2018.

"My quest for knowledge led me to IU Robert McKinney School of Law and it has been an exciting process.

I particularly like the experiential learning opportunities given to international students. The law school has a wonderful atmosphere, you feel part of a community and you are inspired to push your limits."

Max Planck Encyclopedia of International Procedural Law

The home of international law in practice

NEW ONLINE SERVICE

GENERAL EDITOR

Professor H el ene Ruiz Fabri

Director of the Max Planck
Institute Luxembourg for International, European and Regulatory Procedural Law

The Max Planck Encyclopedia of International Procedural Law (MPEiPro) maps and analyzes the systems and processes through which international law is made, interpreted, and adjudicated in practice. It takes a broad view of international procedure, examining it from three different angles: technical points of procedure within specific institutions or across similar organizations; comparative accounts of families of institutions within specific subject areas or with similar functions; and theoretical, interdisciplinary entries.

When you think of International and Comparative Law, think of University of California
Hastings College of the Law in San Francisco.

Our international and comparative law faculty are affecting both international law and policy. CHIMÈNE KEITNER served as the Counselor on International Law at the U.S. State Department and convened a path-breaking series on Democracy, Technology & Security. JOEL PAUL drafted legislation that was introduced as an amendment to the Trade Promotion Authority Act and writes on making trade fairer. NAOMI ROHT-ARRIAZA was selected as a "friend of the court" of the Special Jurisdiction created by Peace Accords in Colombia and consults widely in countries with a legacy of human rights violations, while DAVID TAKACS advises on emerging legal regimes related to climate change, biodiversity, the public trust doctrine, and the human right to water.

Our specialized programs amplify our impact. The East Asian Legal Studies Program, led by KEITH HAND and SETSUO MIYAZAWA, is a hub for research and professional training on legal change in this dynamic region. The Center for Gender and Refugee Studies, led by KAREN MUSALO, is at the forefront of advocacy and litigation efforts to protect refugees, especially women, children and victims of domestic violence. And our Jessup Moot Court team consistently ranks among the best in the nation.

International Human Rights LLM Fellowship

Founded in 1979, the Urban Morgan Institute for Human Rights is the first endowed institute devoted to international human rights law at a U.S. law school. LLM students at the University of Cincinnati College of Law have the opportunity to focus their studies on their own areas of interest, such as human rights law, while gaining a substantive introduction to the U.S. legal system.

"My work with the Urban Morgan Institute has been a highlight of my LLM experience at Cincinnati Law."

—Francesca Gottardi, LLM '18

"If you say, 'I worked on the Human Rights Quarterly,' everyone knows what that is."

—Erin Rosenberg, JD '11,
Legal Officer, International Criminal Court
