The British Journal of Music Education is now established in the field as a key publication, nationally and internationally. The aims of the BJME are to provide clear, stimulating and readable accounts of curriculum development and research in music education. Editorial policy is to encourage careful reflection on teaching in schools, colleges and studios.

Articles are invited from those in any way concerned with music education, and, where appropriate, can be of substantial length, though shorter contributions are also acceptable. Potential authors are referred to the notes for contributors (see inside back cover).

Photographs and other illustrations are welcomed.
