BYU LAW | PRODUCING GLOBAL LAWYERS

BYU Law is committed to honoring the inherent dignity of all people, pursuing truth through both faith and intellect, and promoting lifelong service to God and neighbor. Our mission to serve and bless is global. Accordingly, our students and alumni are people of ideas and influence, and their force for good reaches around the world.

GLOBAL INITIATIVES

LL.M. Program

Our LL.M. program—designed specifically for non-U.S. lawyers who intend to obtain the degree to enhance employment opportunities in their home countries—has graduated over 200 students from 47 countries.

International Externships

More than a third of students participate in international externships each year, introducing them to important legal markets throughout the world where they can further develop their professional lawyering skills and leverage foreign language abilities (73% of BYU Law students are bilingual).

International Center for Law & Religion Studies (ICLRS)

ICLRS at BYU Law is a global academic leader in the field of international religious freedom. Over the past 20 years, the Center has been involved in law reform in 57 countries.

Global Law Seminar

Semester-long international programs in Dubai, Geneva, London, and Mexico City offer students professional training through legal field placements combined with classroom instruction from BYU Law faculty.

Global Business Law Program (GBLP)

The GBLP develops solutions for the modern economy's most difficult challenges, using faculty and student research to design policy interventions for markets across the globe.
