

MEMBERSHIP AND SUBSCRIPTION

1. Any person desirous of becoming a Fellow must be nominated by one Fellow and seconded by another, of whom one must act on a personal knowledge that the candidate is likely to be a suitable and useful Fellow; and the nominating Fellows shall address the Secretary in writing and give the candidate's name, address, and occupation, or status, and shall state to which class the candidate desires to be admitted. Provided always that for persons domiciled abroad it shall be within the power of the Council, on being satisfied as to the credentials of any particular candidate, to dispense with these conditions.

2. The annual subscription for each class of Fellow is:-

	£
Fellows residing in the United Kingdom	20.00
Fellows residing abroad	15.00
3. Library Associates, elected for five years only	5.00
Libraries.	20.00

4. The first payment of subscription is due on election, but if a candidate be elected in November or December of any year, the first annual subscription paid by him shall cover the year beginning on the 1st January next after his election.

5. Annual subscriptions shall be due on the first day of January of each year.

Note: Payments by Deed of Covenant can be made only by Fellows who pay United Kingdom Income Tax. The attention of applicants residing abroad is drawn to the back cover of the Journal where the U.S. dollar equivalent of these subscriptions is given.

When a candidate is proposed for election, this form should be completed in block letters and sent to THE SECRETARY, ROYAL ASIATIC SOCIETY, 56 QUEEN ANNE STREET, LONDON W1M 9LA.

NOTICE TO CONTRIBUTORS

All editorial communications should be addressed to the Editor, Royal Asiatic Society, 56 Queen Anne Street, London W1M 9LA, in the first instance.

Contributions submitted for publication in the Society's Journal should be typed in double spacing on quarto paper, leaving a margin of at least 16 strokes at the left-hand side. Sheets should be numbered consecutively at the top right-hand corner. Notes, numbered consecutively through the article, should be typed on a separate sheet or sheets at the end and not at the foot of each page.

Authors are urged to study the conventions employed in recent issues of the Journal, particularly the style of citation of books and periodical articles, and the bibliographical information inserted at the head of reviews. Contributions should be submitted in a form ready for the printer; later corrections, whether involving over-running or not, can be accepted only at the Editor's discretion and may incur a charge to the author. Authors will receive page proofs.

Authors of articles will be supplied with 25 free copies of offprints. Additional copies can be obtained on request at moderate charges; authors are asked to notify the Editor of their requirements when returning proofs.

Trade and Civilisation in the Indian Ocean

An Economic History from the Rise of Islam to 1750

K. N. CHAUDHURI

This book examines the long chain of oceanic trade which stretched from the South China Sea to the eastern Mediterranean prior to the Industrial Revolution. It points out for the first time the unique and limiting features of Asian commercial capitalism, and shows how the contribution of Asian merchants was valued universally in reality if not legally and formally.

The Literary Works of Ou-yang Hsiu (1007–72)

RONALD C. EGAN

The book is a literary study of one of the greatest of Chinese writers, Ou-yang Hsiu. He was a major writer in each of several genres: prose, poetry, rhapsodies, and tz'u 'songs'. His achievements in each genre are examined and set in the context of his age.

Khotanese Texts Volume VII

H. W. BAILEY

For some fifty years Sir Harold Bailey has studied and interpreted the northern area of Indian Buddhist culture in the Khotan Saka documents of Central Asia dated between the fifth and tenth centuries A.D. This volume of Khotanese texts documents and interprets the historical contacts of the peoples of ancient north-west China and of Sin Kiang before the dominance of the Turks.

The Thought of Chang Tsai

IRA E. KASOFF

Chang Tsai was one of the three major Chinese philosophers who, in the eleventh century, revitalised Confucian thought. This book analyses in depth Chang's thought, looks at the intellectual climate of the time, and describes the triumph of Chang's rivals within the neo-Confucian movement.
