The Theatre of Andrzej Wajda

MACIEJ KARPINSKI

This book provides the first account of the theatre work of the Polish director Andrzej Wajda who is probably better known as one of the leading film-makers in contemporary European cinema. Maciej Karpinski focuses especially on such milestone dramatic productions as the internationally acclaimed adaptations of Dostoyevsky. There is a full chronology of Wajda's theatrical career as well as photographs from productions.

Harold Prince and the American Musical Theatre

FOSTER HIRSCH

With forewords by HAROLD PRINCE and STEPHEN SONDHEIM

This book takes a unique look at the career of one of Broadway's most successful and influential producer/directors. Foster Hirsch describes how, from The Pajama Game and West Side Story to The Phantom of the Opera, Hal Prince has transformed the concept of the musical over the last 40 years. There are many illustrations from the hit shows as well as rare photos of Prince at work.

La Escena Latinoamericana

La Escena Latinoamericana, la primera revista internacional sobre la puesta en escena en Latinoamérica, se ocupa del teatro actual, de sus tendencias y experimentos, con el fin de entregar un conocimiento de nuestros espectáculos en el mundo, analizando sus técnicas escénicas, el trabajo del actor, el trabajo del director o bien la práctica teatral de un grupo o de un proyecto teatral en el tiempo.

La Escena Latinoamericana se propone rescatar puestas en escenas de años precedentes, de un grupo, de un director, de un teatro, de una temática central, con el objetivo de reconstituir la memoria teatral de los espectáculos producidos por latinoamericanos o sobre autores de nuestro continente, trazando su trayectoria en el tiempo y presentando un material visual que complementa la memoria textual.

La Escena Latinoamericana se concentra en el acto creativo, dando la palabra a los creadores, recogiendo sus comentarios y reflexiones sobre el teatro latinoamericano y a la vez cuenta con la colaboración de especialistas reconocidos internacionalmente en el campo de la teoría y de la crítica del teatro latinoamericano que vienen a complementar el acto creativo.

La Escena Latinoamericana va más allá de la simple reseña teatral, recuperando una memoria perdida como memoria presente, y por ello se invita a la reflexión y al debate sobre nuestro teatro, única forma de contribución durable. Así, ofrece un producto de alta calidad crítica, teórica y estética, tres requisitos básicos para todo desarrollo del arte.

The Ladies

Female Patronage of Restoration Drama 1660–1700
DAVID ROBERTS

This first study of a female audience shows how and why women went to the theatre in Restoration England. Dr Roberts examines in detail the case of a particularly well-documented theatre-goer, Elizabeth Pepys, and challenges the notion of a female faction in Restoration drama.

Editor: John Gronbeck-Tedesco

Associate Editors: Rosemarie Bank, Charles Berg, David M. Bergeron, John Countryman, Weldon Durham, Roger Gross, Richard Hornby, Felicia Londré, Charles Lyons, David McDonald, Bert States, Patrick White

The Journal of Dramatic Theory and Criticism fills a long-time need for a publication which addresses the theoretical issues associated with performance and performance texts. The Journal publishes twice each year in the Fall and Spring. JDTC publishes a variety of scholarly works and commentary:

new theories and methodologies pertinent to performance and performance texts

commentary about such theories or methods performance criticism which attempts to yield new insights into theatrical works

commentaries about criticism

articles which explore dramatic terms as they are used in fields outside the theatre investigations into the history of the subjects enumerated above

Founded in 1986, JDTC has attracted essays by major scholars and artists: J. L. Styan, Thomas F. Van Laan, Marvin Carlson, Susan Hollis Merritt, William J. Free, Mary F. Cantanzaro, Hollis Huston, Natalie Crohn Schmitt, Stuart E. Baker, David M. Bergeron, Leanore Lieblein, Catherine Wiley, Joanne Klein, Edith Kern, John A. Degen, Jonathan Beck, Stuart E. THEATRE RESEARCH / RECHERCHES THEATRALES

The International Federation published the journal Theatre Research/Recherches Théâtrales from 1959 to 1975 when it was succeeded by Theatre Research International. During these years many important articles of original research were published covering the whole field of theatre history from the earliest times, and particularly Shakespeare and the Elizabethan period, to more recent figures such as Strindberg, Craig and Beckett. There have been special issues on the themes of Opera, the Playwright as Director, and Reinhardt; a check-list of world theatre on records; and reports on International Conferences and Symposia of the I.F.T.R.

In all 14 volumes were published in 36 issues including a complete index. Most back issues are still available.

University and institutional libraries, and especially those who have subscribed to the new journal Theatre Research International, are recommended to take this opportunity of completing their holding of the earlier issues of this publication, while copies last.

Price: per issue £2 ($3); per volume £4 ($6) plus postage

A few complete runs of the 14 volumes (with two issues in facsimile) are available at £50 ($75). Postage extra.
