Mother of Detective Fiction:
The Life and Works of Anna Katharine Green
Patricia D. Maida

In examining the life and the fictional detective works of Anna Katharine Green one discovers a slice of America life—in the social events of New York City, in the plight of young working women, in the moral dilemmas of upright citizens pursuing the American dream. Green knew her milieu well and captures it for all her readers.

The Vampire in 19th Century
English Literature
Carol Senf

Senf looks at the figure of the vampire in 19th century literature and explains why a primitive superstition was a popular literary figure in mainstream literature and has evolved into a character in 20th century popular literature.

204 pp. $15.95 pb., $32.95 cb.
425-0 pb., 424-2 cb.

Cooking by the Book:
Food in Literature and Culture
Mary Anne Schofield, editor

There is a symbiotic relationship between food and the written word, be it fiction or non-fiction, which whets the appetite (literally and metaphorically) of even the most seasoned of eaters and readers. It is the purpose of Cooking by the Book to nourish these appetites. The essays examine the use writers have made of food as a rhetorical structure that allows them to articulate abstract, internal, and difficult to express concepts.

THE BROWNING OF CASA GUIDI

Edward C. McAleer

A brief account of the Brownings' life together and of the house that was their home. "Edward C. McAleer's captivating little text, absolutely the best of its kind, serves as a guidebook to the domestic Brownings. . . . concise, lucid and graceful. . . . His book is intended for intelligent readers relatively unfamiliar with the terrain; but even the specialist will come across items forgotten or overlooked" (Boston Globe). Illustrated. Second printing (with revisions).

Cloth: $12.00; members' price, $10.00.
Paperback: $6.25; members' price $5.00.

BROWNING INSTITUTE STUDIES

Browning Institute Studies, the annual of the Browning Institute, contains material on all aspects of Victorian literary and cultural history. Regular features include the annual bibliography of the Brownings and articles about their lives and works. "Handsome format . . . every contribution is written in lucid English" (Browning Society Notes). "Concentrates on the kind of hard research which the Browning Institute is best equipped to foster" (Victorian Poetry). Illustrated.

Cloth: $30.00 per volume. Members (except Student Members and Foreign Members) receive the current volume without charge, and all members may purchase single back volumes for $10.00 each. BIS 17 (1989): "Victorian Popular Culture." BIS 16 (1988): "Victorian Learning." BIS 15 (1987): "Meeting the Brownings." BIS 14 (1986): "The Victorian Threshold." BIS 13 (1985): "Victorian Women and Men." BIS 12 (1984): "Italy and the Victorian Imagination." BIS 11 (1983): "Victorian Modernism" (Wendell S. Johnson, Guest Editor). BIS 10 (1982): "Victorian Classicism" (Gerhard Joseph, Guest Editor). BIS 9 (1981): "Editing the Victorians" (N. John Hall, Guest Editor). BIS 1-8 also available.

THE BROWNING COLLECTIONS: A RECONSTRUCTION WITH OTHER MEMORABILIA

Compiled by Philip Kelley
and Betty A. Coley

In 1913 Sotheby's auctioned the vast collection of books, manuscripts, proofs, furniture, and other possessions that had once been owned by Robert and Elizabeth Barrett Browning and their son Pen. After years of patient research, Philip Kelley and Betty A. Coley have produced a list of nearly 7,000 items from the Browning household (including their private library), and half of these have been traced to their present owners. "This book presents so much new information and offers it in so many valuable ways that it must be pronounced indispensable. No one, from this time forth, should attempt to research or write on the Brownings without it at hand" (Bulletin of Bibliography). Illustrated. A co-publication with Wedgestone Press.

Cloth: $85.00; members' price, $68.00.

THE LETTERS OF ELIZABETH BARRETT BROWNING TO MARY RUSSELL MITFORD 1836-1854

Edited by Meredith B. Raymond and Mary Rose Sullivan

In all, 497 letters – the largest number Elizabeth wrote to a single correspondent – have been traced; and for the first time the entire collection is presented in full, with scholarly introduction, detailed annotations, and an index. Miss Mitford said of the letters: "It was really talk, fireside talk, neither better nor worse, assuming a form of permanence – gossip daguerreotyped." Three volumes. A co-publication with Wedgestone Press.

Cloth: $160.00; members' price, $128.00.

Elizabeth Barrett Browning's
CASA GUIDI WINDOWS

Edited with an Introduction
and Notes by Julia Markus

This new critical edition is the first volume of Elizabeth Barrett Browning's poetry to be edited in accordance with modern scholarly standards. Dr. Markus argues for a reevaluation of Mrs. Browning's poetry, and points out the historical misconceptions, aesthetic bias, and anti-feminist prejudice that have combined to obscure Mrs. Browning's most political poem. Includes an introduction, reliable text, historical and critical notes, and textual notes. Illustrated.

Cloth: $12.00; members' price, $10.00.

MEETING
THE BROWNING

Michael Meredith

The deluxe catalogue created for a 1986 exhibition of Browning-related items presented at Winfield, Kansas, and at Waco, Texas. Contains (1) an informative introduction; (2) thirty color plates picturing the poets, some of their relatives, and items significant in their lives; (3) in-depth descriptions of all 250-plus exhibited items; and (4) a Browning chronology. High-gloss paper, 128 pages. A co-publication with Armstrong Browning Library of Baylor University and with Southwestern College.

Paperback: $17.50; members' price, $15.00.

THE TRAGI-COMEDY
OF PEN BROWNING

Maisie Ward

A biography of the Brownings' only child, a boy whose early promise was never fully realized. Introduction by Robert Coles. "A sensitive, shrewd and charitable essay" (TLS). Illustrated.

Cloth: $9.00; members' price, $7.50.

ROBERT AND ELIZABETH
BARRETT BROWNING:
AN ANNOTATED
BIBLIOGRAPHY, 1951-1970

William S. Peterson

An indispensable source book which fills the gap between the standard Browning bibliography by Broughton, Northup and Pearsall, and the annual annotated Browning bibliography published in Browning Institute Studies. Nearly 2,000 items. "No Browning library of any size can afford to be without it" (Browning Society Notes).

Cloth: $27.50; members' price, $22.50.

A CENTENARY SELECTION
FROM ROBERT BROWNING'S
POETRY

Edited and Introduced by Michael Meredith

Commemorates the centenary of Robert Browning's death in Venice on 12 December 1889.

Long regarded as difficult and obscure, Browning's works are now seen as precursory to the twentieth century. Poems in this anthology are carefully chosen to appeal to modern readers—regardless of their present degree of acquaintance with RB.

The writings appear in four groups: narrative poems, love lyrics, dramatic monologues, and personal poems. Each group has its own introduction, and clear explanatory notes are provided. There is a Browning chronology which relates various poems to events in the author's life.

Illustrations include works of art that inspired specific Browning poems, and others which the writings themselves prompted. There are also photographs of Browning, his family, homes, and surroundings. A co-publication with Constable (London).

Cloth: $24.00; members' price, $20.00.

Paperback: $12.75; members' price, $10.75.

THE BROWNING INSTITUTE

After Elizabeth's death in their Florentine apartment on 29 June 1861, Robert Browning commissioned the above painting, Drawing Room at Casa Guidi, by George Mignaty. Since the painting (now in the Goewey Collection of Mills College Library) provides a remarkably detailed record of the room's appearance in 1861, it is one of the chief sources of evidence being used by the Browning Institute, which owns Casa Guidi, in plans for restoration. Today the Browning rooms are open once more to the public, and by joining the Browning Institute you can contribute to the restoration of Casa Guidi as a museum and study center.

Members (except Student Members and Foreign Members) receive a free copy of Browning Institute Studies, and all members are placed on the mailing list of Through Casa Guidi Windows: The Bulletin of the Browning Institute. In addition, members are entitled to discounts on other publications of the Institute.

The Browning Institute is a nonprofit organization chartered in the State of New York. A copy of the last annual report of the Institute filed with the New York State Department of State may be obtained upon request by writing to the Office of Charities Registration, Department of State, 162 Washington Avenue, Albany, N.Y. 12231, or to The Browning Institute, Inc. at the address below.

The following categories of membership are available: Life Membership, $1000; Sponsor, $250; Contributing, $100; Sustaining, $40; REGULAR, $22.50; Library, $30; Student, $5; Foreign (except Canada), $10; Browning Societies and cultural organizations, $1 per active member; Corporate, $250 (minimum). Dues and contributions are tax-deductible.
