CUBAN LEADERSHIP AFTER CASTRO: BIOGRAPHIES OF CUBA'S TOP COMMANDERS

Rafael Fermoselle

In addition to providing biographies of Cuba's top military leaders, this book presents a road map for understanding the possible course of events in Cuba after Fidel Castro.

It identifies and seeks relationships, loyalties, relative influence, and comparisons among top political and military leaders in communist Cuba. (Second edition, 1992) ISBN-0-935501-35-5 $16.95

THE CUBAN STATE BUDGET: CONCEPTS AND MEASUREMENT

Jorge F. Pérez-López

A thorough, precise account of the Cuban state budget. Eight tables and three figures help to explain the intricacies of a budget comprised of 199 individual budgets — two national and the rest provincial and county budgets. Reflecting the collectivization of the economy, the state budget is a comprehensive system of accounts, with most of the state's expenditures equivalent to more than 90 percent of national income produced. Revenues originate from the state sector, the non-state sector (private sector plus cooperatives), and the population at large. ISBN-0-935501-38-X $10.95

MOSCOW, HAVANA, AND NATIONAL LIBERATION IN LATIN AMERICA: THREE DECADES OF GUERRILLAS AND TERRORISTS, 1959-1990

Robert H. Riefe

The vast majority of revolutionary movements in Latin America over the past thirty years have been inspired by Castroism and have received substantial Cuban aid in their efforts to overturn the existing order. Riefe provides a detailed yet succinct account of Cuban involvement in hemispheric revolution. ISBN-0-935501-33-9 $16.95
