

CALL FOR PAPERS:

THE OWL OF MINERVA

In 1969, the OWL was established as the official journal of The Hegel Society of America. Since that time, this quarterly has served its readership with a continuous survey of Hegelian scholarship. The OWL is now received by the over 350 members of The Hegel Society of America – a membership international in scope – and is subscribed to by over 125 libraries and research institutions throughout the world.

Thanks to a generous grant from Villanova University, the OWL is now enabled to develop into a full-format biannual journal which will make its first appearance (as Vol. 15, No. 1) in the fall of 1983. This new edition of the OWL, which will contain its usual series of reviews, notes and discussions, will be expanded to feature not only articles that bear upon the latest developments in Hegelian scholarship, but also those that direct a Hegelian perspective toward the resolution of philosophical issues. Of course, just as in the past, studies of Hegel's contemporaries and those who are now influenced by his thought will find welcome in the pages of the OWL. Please feel free to submit not only articles intended for publication, but any notes and commentaries that you believe might be of interest to the readership of the OWL. Correspondence regarding book reviews can be sent directly to Professor William Maker.

Editor

Lawrence S. Stepelevich
Department of Philosophy
Villanova University Villanova, PA. 19085

Assistant Editor

Eric von der Luft

Book Review Editor

William Maker
Department of History and Philosophy
Clemson University, Clemson SC 29631

Editorial Advisory Board

Shlomo Avineri
John N. Findlay
Errol E. Harris

H. S. Harris

Quentin Lauer, S.J.
Hans Martin Sass
Charles Taylor

Subscription Rates

Individual: Automatic with HSA membership
Annual dues $10.00, students $6.00

Institutional: $16.00 annually

Single Copies: $6.00

Make checks or money orders payable in U.S. currency to The Hegel Society of America. Mail all payments to: The Treasurer, Hegel Society, Department of Philosophy, Villanova University, Villanova, PA 19085