Portrait of the artist as a favorite uncle.

Here is a vivid, intimate portrait of the man whose plays became monuments of the Irish literary renaissance. From the writer's unpublished papers and his own recollections, Stephens compiled a massive typescript covering Synge's life and career. Now, Andrew Carpenter has edited passages from Stephens's work to form a concise, entertaining, and illuminating biographical narrative.

Portrait of the playwright as a fascinating contradiction.

Six Characters in Search of an Author, Luigi Pirandello's best-known play, is included in the repertory of the leading theatre companies of today, yet very little is known about the playwright himself. Gaspare Giudice's definitive biography of Pirandello explores the crucial and often contradictory connection between the man's personal experience and artistic creation, providing a key to understanding Pirandellian drama.

SCHILLER COLLEGE EUROPE

GERMANY — FRANCE — SPAIN — ENGLAND

After a most successful year in Berlin, where a workshop program with nine productions playing regular weekly performances in repertory was established, Schiller College has relocated its TheaterWorkshop Program at the Strasbourg Campus, where it will be able to expand its facilities and program. In addition to the repertory, guest appearances in neighboring city and state theaters in France and Germany are being planned. The Theater Arts Program at Schiller College is a full liberal arts program now centered in Strasbourg with a supplementary program in London. It offers the American student the unique opportunity of experiencing European theater while developing his own talents through direct and intensive work with American teachers active professionally in German theater.

The American University Academy for the Performing Arts (Formerly the Wolf Trap Academy) Theatre Program

Now entering its fifth exciting season, AU's Academy for the Performing Arts continues to offer programs in dance, theater and music vital to the developing artist.

Working under direct supervision of artists/teachers, both graduates and undergraduates receive intensive professional training in performance and design. Students earn 4 academic credits per session from the University. Opportunities to perform compliment the on-campus classes.

First Session Under the artistic direction of Lee Breuer, MABOU MINES has evolved a dramatic form that enables them to cross the traditional lines between the theatre and other artistic disciplines. As a result of their work with the noted Berliner Ensemble, they have incorporated Brecht's epic theatre techniques into their own unique teaching curriculum. Several members of the Company were in the original San Francisco Mime Troupe.

First Session Courses Epic Theater Technique, Scene Work, Mime, Vocal Training, Acting in the Abstract, Choral Technique, Improvisations, Yoga, Scene Study, Movement, Characterization and Grotowski Technique.

Second Session: RICHARD SCHECHNER and THE PERFORMANCE GROUP with award-winning designer Jerry Rojo Since its beginnings in 1967, The Performance Group has developed environmental theatre—audience participation, theatre design and staging so that spectators and performers share the same spaces . . . The Group develops their work through ongoing training and workshops. All performances are built from a foundation of physical, vocal, musical and psychophysical exercises.

Second Session Courses Environmental Theater Acting and Design, Psycho-physical exercises, Yoga and Breathing, Body Analysis, Scene Work, Group projects, Sound and Movement Improvisation, Music Making, Vocal Training and Playwriting for Environmental Theater.

Students may also elect courses from the dance curriculum.

Academy reserves the right to change curriculum if necessary.

First Session June 21-July 18

Second Session July 19-August 15

Tuition $296 per Four Week session including free tickets to academy events and use of recreational facilities.

$50 pre-registration fee required on or before April 1, 1975.

The New Theatre.

PERFORMANCE DOCUMENTATION

AN ANTHOLOGY
EDITED BY MICHAEL KIRBY
FROM
The Drama Review

THE NEW THEATRE attempts to recreate various theatrical experiences by documenting in words and photographs a wide range of recent experimental, or avant-garde performances from many different countries. Entirely reprinted from The Drama Review, the book includes drama, dance, and several productions—some related to Happenings—that would be difficult to classify. Among the documented performances are: Jerzy Grotowski's Apocalypsis cum figuris (Poland); Frederic Baal's Real Reel (Belgium); Ariane Mnouchkine's 1789 (France); Victor Garcia's The Balcony (Brazil); Georgij Paro's Christopher Columbus (Yugoslavia); Luca Roconi's XX (Italy); Shuji Terayama's Jashumon (Japan); The People Show 39 (England); Richard Foreman's Sophia (USA); and Robert Wilson's The Life and Times of Joseph Stalin (USA).

New from Columbia

Columbia University Press proudly announces the completion of a monumental series—

NARRATIVE AND DRAMATIC SOURCES OF SHAKESPEARE

Geoffrey Bullough, Editor

With the recent publication of the eighth and final volume in this series, Geoffrey Bullough's invaluable study of Shakespeare's sources is complete. Included in the final volume on Shakespeare's romances is Dr. Bullough's concluding, summarizing, final chapter. Here he ties together the threads of Shakespeare's sources in an essay on the poetry, imagery, drama, and development of Shakespeare's art. He discusses how Shakespeare used the sources and how the use changed and grew with his increasing powers as a dramatist.

From the reviews of individual volumes:

"When the eighth volume appears we shall have not merely an unrivalled collection of source-material, but also sane interpretations of all Shakespeare's works . . . [Professor Bullough] has provided Shakespeare scholars with an indispensable work of reference."
—Kenneth Muir, Modern Language Review

"Any Shakespeare, drama, or theatre collection founded since 1875 must order this title and every library of size should order it."
—Library Journal

Volume I Early Comedies, Poems, Romeo and Juliet

The Comedy of Errors; The Taming of the Shrew; Venus and Adonis; The Rape of Lucrece; Two Gentlemen of Verona; Love's Labour's Lost; A Midsummer Night's Dream; Romeo and Juliet; The Merchant of Venice.
