George Eliot
A BIOGRAPHY

By GORDON S. HAIGHT, Yale University. Destined to become the definitive biography, based on more than thirty year's research, no other work tells George Eliot's story so fully or with such sympathy and dramatic interest. It uses much newly discovered manuscript material, including the opening scene of a historical novel written when George Eliot was only fifteen. 12 halftones. $12.50

The Man from New York
JOHN QUINN AND HIS FRIENDS

By B. L. REID, Mount Holyoke College. The name of John Quinn has been practically forgotten, yet it is difficult to think of a painter, sculptor, or writer of Quinn's time (1870-1924) to whom his good will did not make a significant difference. This biography of a remarkable friend-patron-collector of art and artists sheds much new light on the world of Conrad, Pound, Eliot, Yeats, Joyce, Picasso, Matisse and many others. 16 pages of halftones. $12.50

The Dynamics of Literary Response

By NORMAN N. HOLLAND, State University of New York at Buffalo. "The most systematic and detailed of all attempts to put literary criticism on psychoanalytic grounds. . . . I believe it will come to be recognized as the indispensable reference point for future discussion of the subject it treats."—FREDERICK CREWS, University of California, Berkeley. $8.00

The English Drama, 1485-1584

By the late F. P. WILSON; and G. K. HUNTER, University of Warwick. This is Volume IV, Part I, of THE OXFORD HISTORY OF ENGLISH LITERATURE. It begins with the accession of Henry VII and chronicles the decline of the Morality forms, discusses the new dramatic impulses produced by the pressure of the Reformation and Renaissance, and ends with the drama of Lyly and Peele. $5.95

James Joyce Remembered

By CONSTANTINE CURRAN. From his friendship lasting more than forty years, his intimate understanding of Joyce's Dublin background, and from his direct knowledge of Edwardian Ireland, Mr. Curran has provided a sensitive and perceptive portrait of the artist. 4 plates. $4.75

Andre Malraux

By DENIS BOAK, University of Hull. In a detailed study of the works of André Malraux, Dr. Boak examines and assesses his novels, from La Voie royale through Les Noyers de l'Altenburg. He discusses the sources of Malraux's thought, in particular the influence of Nietzsche and the author's relationship with the Existentialists. $7.00

A STATEMENT OF EDITORIAL POLICY

PMLA endeavors to represent the most distinguished contemporary scholarship and criticism in the modern languages and literatures. It welcomes either new or traditional approaches by either young or established scholars, providing only that whatever it publishes is well written and likely to be of permanent value. The distribution of papers in PMLA should reflect work of distinction actually being done from year to year, regardless of periods or languages. Members who feel their interests neglected by this policy are urged to write and to encourage others to write articles good enough to be published.

Since its audience is the total membership of the Association, PMLA is reluctant to publish minor articles or highly technical studies addressed to specialists in limited fields. Nor does it encourage brief notes or unduly long papers. PMLA does not review books. Articles should be written in a clear, concise, and attractive style, with documentation held to a necessary minimum.

Any member of the Association has the privilege of submitting papers for publication in PMLA. Each paper submitted will be read by at least one consultant with special competence in the field concerned and, if in any way recommended, it will also be read by at least one member of the Editorial Committee. Attempt is made to publish papers within nine months of acceptance. If a decision to accept or reject a paper seems unduly delayed, contributors are reminded that the consultant readers and the Editorial Committee are distinguished men and women who generously contribute their scant leisure to the advancement of scholarship in humane letters.

An abstract in English on the standard form must accompany every article submitted to PMLA. Printed abstract forms and guidelines may be obtained from the Editor.

Manuscripts, prepared in conformity with the MLA Style Sheet, should be addressed to the Editor of PMLA, 62 Fifth Avenue, New York, N. Y. 10011. Carbon copies are not needed, but should be made and retained by the author. Pamphlets On the Publication of Research and on The Publication of Academic Writing may be purchased from the MLA Materials Center.
