

History of Christianity in the Middle Ages

by WILLIAM R. CANNON—Dean of Candler School of Theology, Emory University, and Professor of Church History and Historical Theology.

A comprehensive history of eastern and western medieval Christianity, placing the men and events in the framework of the social and political scene to reveal more vividly the dogmas, doctrines, and philosophies of the era, the conflicts and contributions that grew out of it, the different phases of the medieval Christian church, and the great men who influenced this period. Includes chronological table of popes and emperors. $4.50

Brothers of the Faith

by STEPHEN NEILL—Anglican Bishop and General Editor of World Christian Books.

This is the first account of the struggle for church unity to be told through the biographies of the men who worked for it, rather than through the documents and official statements which resulted from it. It is a nontechnical, inside story about the issues, the men, and the meaning of the effort for denominational co-operation beginning with the Edinburgh Conference in 1910 and ending with a look at the unity Christendom can expect. $4

The Social Sources of Church Unity

by ROBERT LEE—Assistant Professor of Church and Community at Union Theological Seminary.

American church life traditionally has been noted for its religious diversity, for its many and varied religious groups. The bulk of American Protestants today share a different posture. They are astir with the desire to co-operate and unite. This unique book analyzes the socio-cultural factors that contribute to the rise of the church unity movement. $4.50

The Life Experience and Gospel Labors of the Rt. Rev. Richard Allen

An autobiography by the Rt. Rev. Richard Allen, vividly depicting his life and work as the first Negro ordained and licensed to preach in America. Being republished in honor of the African Methodist Episcopal Church's 200th anniversary celebration of his birth, this volume includes historical data relating to the organization of the African Methodist Episcopal Church. Introduction by George A. Singleton. $1.50

1960 Brewer Prize Contest

The American Society of Church History announces that its next Brewer Prize competition for a book-length manuscript in church history will conclude in 1960. The award will be announced at the annual meeting of the Society in December of this year. It will consist of a subsidy of one thousand dollars to assist the author in the publication of the winning manuscript, which shall be described on its title-page as the "Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize Essay of the American Society of Church History" and shall be published in a manner acceptable to the Society. If competing essays are otherwise of equal quality, preference will be given to those dealing with topics related to the history of Congregationalism. Complete manuscripts in final form, fully annotated, must be in the hands of the Secretary, Professor Winthrop S. Hudson, 1100 South Goodman St., Rochester 20, New York, by September 15, 1960. There must be two copies, a typescript and a first carbon, on standard weight paper, double-spaced, with a left-hand margin of at least an inch and one-half.
