Gender and Law

Gender Equality

Dimensions of Women's Equal Citizenship
Edited by Linda C. McClain and Joanna L. Grossman
$90.00: Hb: 978-0-521-76647-0: 468 pp.

"This outstanding collection of essays both illuminates and complicates a range of gender justice problems in intimate and public arenas within and across national boundaries. The 'citizenship' of the title stands for democratic inclusion, and is animated by an aspirational vision of 'equal citizenship' for women and men. Yet the volume's editors recognize that the citizenship concept is itself fraught and double-edged, and must be deployed self-critically... The volume offers a rigorous overview of many of the political and theoretical conundrums facing advocates of equal justice for women today."

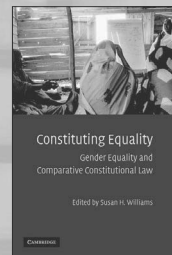

—Linda Bosniak, Rutgers University School of Law

Constituting Equality

Gender Equality and Comparative Constitutional Law
Edited by Susan H. Williams
$99.00: Hb: 978-0-521-89836-2: 380 pp.

Constituting Equality addresses the question: how would you write a constitution if you really cared about gender equality? Many people might assume that you would include a provision guaranteeing equality on the basis of sex or gender and then you would be done. But, in fact, almost every aspect of a constitution can have an effect on gender equality – from the choice of who will govern and how they are elected, to the role of religion or culture in the society, to the kinds of rights protected by the constitution.

The Gender of Reparations

*Unsettling Sexual Hierarchies while Redressing
Human Rights Violations*
Edited by Ruth Rubio-Marin
$99.00: Hb: 978-0-521-51792-8: 432 pp.

"This book makes a unique contribution to our understanding of the gendered implications of transition for women. It sets out to map and expose the gendered terrain of reparations, and exceeds its own ambitions in the process. It cogently demonstrates the varied dimensions of reparations and how the giving or exclusion of remedies for women is an integral part of their integration into societies experiencing change."

MINERVA'S OWL

The Tradition of Western Political Thought
JEFFREY ABRAMSON

"[Abramson] gives us a wonderfully accessible survey of the entire field of Western political philosophy. His book is not only a fine introduction for beginners, but also an erudite, nonpartisan consideration for those who may be more conversant with the literature. There is something to think about on every page."

THE ETHOS OF A LATE-MODERN CITIZEN

STEPHEN K. WHITE

White offers an incisive interpretation of our late-modern ethical-political condition and explains how a distinctive "ethos," or spirit, of citizenship might constitute part of an exemplary response. This ethos requires reworking basic figures of the modern political imagination, including our conception of the self, citizenship, and democratic politics.

THE SUPREME COURT AND THE AMERICAN ELITE, 1789-2008

LUCAS A. POWE, JR.

Drawing on more than four decades of thinking about the Supreme Court and its role in the American political system, this book offers a new, clear, and troubling perspective on American jurisprudence, politics, and history. Lucas Powe shows how virtually every major Supreme Court ruling, however deftly framed in constitutional terms, suited the wishes of the most powerful politicians of the time.

THE BIRTHRIGHT LOTTERY

Citizenship and Global Inequality
AYELET SHACHAR

"Shachar's fundamental insight is to suggest treating the material benefits of citizenship as a form of property. That recasts citizenship as an inheritance... that ought to be taxed... For those who would argue that it is repellent to pay for your birthright—a sort of head tax in reverse—Shachar attacks the notion that citizenship is a natural right... [She] has raised the bar on the discussion of equality."

KANT AND THE LIMITS OF AUTONOMY

SUSAN MELD SHELL

Autonomy for Kant is not just a synonym for the capacity to choose, whether simple or deliberative. It is what the word literally implies: the imposition of a law on one's own authority and out of one's own rational resources. In Kant and the Limits of Autonomy, Susan Meld Shell explores the limits of Kantian autonomy—both the force of its claims and the complications to which they give rise. Through a careful examination of major and minor works, Shell argues for the importance of attending to the difficulty inherent in autonomy and to the related resistance that in Kant's view autonomy necessarily provokes in us. Such attention yields new access to Kant's famous, and famously puzzling, Groundlaying of the Metaphysics of Morals. It also provides for a richer and more unified account of Kant's later political and moral works; and it highlights the pertinence of some significant but neglected early writings, including the recently published Lectures on Anthropology.

GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES

The Guantánamo Effect

Exposing the Consequences of U.S. Detention and Interrogation Practices

LAUREL E. FLETCHER, and ERIC STOVER
Foreword by the Honorable Patricia M. Wald

"What happened to prisoners at Guantánamo is one of the most shameful moments in recent American history. Anyone who seeks the truth about these events—now and for years to come—will be in debt to this study, which is comprehensive and careful, poignant and devastating."

—Adam Hochschild, author of
King Leopold's Ghost

$40.00 cloth, $15.95 paper

Free for All

Fixing School Food in America
JANET POPPENDIECK

"Anyone who reads this book will find the present school lunch situation beyond unacceptable. Free for All is a call for action on behalf of America's school kids, one that we all need to join."

—Marion Nestle, author of Food Politics

California Studies in Food and Culture

$27.50 cloth

The Insecure American

How We Got Here and
What We Should Do About It

HUGH GUSTERSON and
CATHERINE BESTEMAN, EDITORS
Foreword by Barbara Ehrenreich

"This distinguished group ...trains an ethnographic lens on the impact of growing insecurity on the social fabric of the nation. Concerned citizens, fellow social scientists, students, and policy makers should pay attention to their message."

—Katherine Newman, Princeton University, co-author of The Missing Class

$65.00 cloth, $24.95 paper

Cold War Captives

Imprisonment, Escape, and Brainwashing

SUSAN L. CARRUTHERS

"A wonderfully rich account of early cold war culture and politics. Carruthers writes with clarity and élan, illuminating aspects of the cold war that no one has heretofore explored."

—Marilyn Young, author of
The Vietnam Wars 1945–1990

$55.00 cloth, $21.95 paper

Europe's Promise

Why the European Way Is the Best Hope in an Insecure Age

STEVEN HILL

"An elegant and counter-intuitive manifesto for a new politics of interdependence that could take the world through the turmoil of the economic and global warming crises."

—Mark Leonard, Executive Director,
European Council on Foreign Relations

$60.00 cloth, $24.95 paper

The Art of the Gut

Manhood, Power, and Ethics in Japanese Politics

ROBIN M. LE BLANC

"A beautifully written book, The Art of the Gut reads as easily as a fast-paced novel. Searching beyond the formal structures, regulations, and demographic counts associated with elections to consider the potential for one man to make a difference takes LeBlanc into an investigation of codes of masculinity in contemporary Japan as she studies how these men both employ and defy these codes in their political lives."

—Jan Bardsley, Associate Professor,
Japanese Humanities, The University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill

LOUIS D. BRANDEIS

A Life

by Melvin I. Urofsky

The first full-scale biography in twenty-five years of one of the most important and distinguished justices to sit on the Supreme Court—a book that reveals Louis D. Brandeis the reformer, lawyer, and jurist, and Brandeis the man, in all of his complexity, passion, and wit.

“A comprehensive biography of an American legal giant . . . likely to become the standard biography. . . . An authoritative, impressive assessment of a man whose legal reasoning continues to influence our republic.” —Kirkus Reviews (starred)

Pantheon | Cloth | 976 pages | $40.00

WOODROW WILSON

A Biography

by John Milton Cooper, Jr.

“There is no more accomplished Woodrow Wilson scholar than John Milton Cooper, and this magisterial, judicious, deeply researched book—the culmination of decades of study—shows the author at the zenith of his powers. Cooper’s book demonstrates Wilson’s importance to our own generation, and his powerful judgments will shape the way we view the 28th President for a very long time.”

—Michael Beschloss, author of Presidential Courage

Knopf | Cloth | 720 pages | $35.00

FREEDOM'S BATTLE

The Origins of Humanitarian Intervention

by Gary J. Bass

“Bass tells the strange, bloody tales of these now nearly forgotten campaigns with extraordinary verve and wit. . . . The book’s real payoff is what it brings to our understanding of contemporary conflicts.” —Lev Grossman, Time

Vintage | Paper | 528 pages | $17.95

AYN RAND AND THE WORLD SHE MADE

by Anne C. Heller

A passionate advocate of laissez-faire capitalism and individual rights, Rand remains a powerful force in the political perceptions of Americans today. Based on original research, this is a comprehensive and eye-opening portrait of one of the most significant and improbable figures of the twentieth century.

Nan A. Talese | Cloth | 592 pages | $35.00

REVOLUTION 1989

The Fall of the Soviet Empire

by Victor Sebestyen

A revealing new account of the collapse of the Soviet Union’s European empire during months of largely peaceful revolution that profoundly changed the world. Authoritative, riveting in both its broad political sweep and its abundance of personal detail, this is an essential addition to the annals of contemporary history.

Pantheon | Cloth | 480 pages | $30.00

THE AYATOLLAH BEGS TO DIFFER

The Paradox of Modern Iran

by Hooman Majd

“Perhaps the best book yet written on the contradictions of contemporary Iran. . . . It captures like no book in recent memory the ethos of the country, in elegant and precise prose.” —Los Angeles Times

THE WALTER H. SHORENSTEIN
ASIA-PACIFIC RESEARCH CENTER

STANFORD UNIVERSITY
ANNOUNCES

THE 2010–2011 WALTER H. SHORENSTEIN FELLOWSHIPS

FELLOWSHIPS IN CONTEMPORARY ASIA-PACIFIC STUDIES FOR JUNIOR SCHOLARS

The Walter H. Shorenstein Asia-Pacific Research Center in the Freeman Spogli Institute for International Studies announces its 2010–2011 Walter H. Shorenstein Fellowships. Made possible through the generosity of Walter H. Shorenstein, awards will be made to two junior scholars (recent Ph.D.s must have degree conferral by August 31, 2010) for research and writing on Asia.

The primary focus of the program is contemporary political, economic, or social change in the Asia-Pacific region (including Northeast, Southeast, and South Asia), or topics in international relations and international political economy. Fellows must be in residence for at least three academic quarters, beginning the fall quarter of the 2010 academic year. Fellows take part in center activities throughout the academic year, and are required to present their research findings in center seminars. Fellows also participate in the center's publication program. The fellowship carries a stipend of $42,000, plus $2,500 for research materials.

Applicants should submit: (1) a brief research statement (not to exceed five typed pages), which describes the research and writing to be undertaken during the fellowship period, as well as the proposed publishable product that will result; (2) curriculum vitae; and (3) three letters of recommendation.

DEADLINE FOR RECEIPT OF ALL MATERIAL IS DECEMBER 15, 2009. Address all materials and queries to Ms. Nancy Ashton, Executive Assistant to the Director, Walter H. Shorenstein Asia-Pacific Research Center, Encina Hall E301, Stanford University, Stanford, CA 94305-6055. email nashton07@stanford.edu.

Editors

Duncan Snidal, University of Chicago
Alexander Wendt, The Ohio State University

Launching in 2009, International Theory invites papers on theory of all varieties and from all disciplines, provided it addresses problems of politics, broadly defined and relates to the international.

International Theory welcomes scholarship that uses evidence from the real world to advance theoretical arguments. However, it is intended as a forum where scholars can develop theoretical arguments in depth without an expectation of extensive empirical analysis.

Full instructions for contributors can be found here: journals.cambridge.org/int/ifc

Manuscripts for consideration or any queries should be sent by email to the Editors at it.mershon@osu.edu

International Theory is published with the support of the Mershon Center of The Ohio State University
