

Figures

I.1	Gaspar de Figueroa, ‘San Nicolás de Tolentino y las Ánimas’, 1656	page 2
I.1	Joseph Mulder, title page to Lucas Fernández de Piedrahita, Historia general	24
I.2	Painted textile fragment of a luxury blanket ( manta ), Colombia, Eastern Cordillera, 800–1600 CE (Muisca period)	44
I.3	Ceramic figure with facial decoration and gold alloy nose ring ( santuario? ), Colombia, Eastern Cordillera, 800–1600 CE (Muisca period)	64
I.4	Tripod offering bowl with human and bird guardians, containing votive figures ( tunjos ) and emeralds, Colombia, Eastern Cordillera, 800–1600 CE (Muisca period)	65
3.1	Votive figure ( tunjo ) of Indigenous ruler ( cacique ) in residential enclosure ( cercado ), Colombia, Eastern Cordillera, 800–1600 CE (Muisca period)	125
3.2	Offering of thirty-two votive figures ( tunjos ) and one unworked gold lump, Colombia, Eastern Cordillera, 800–1600 CE (Muisca period)	152
6.1	Anonymous, mural portrait of Indigenous donor, Church of San Juan Bautista, Sutatausa, Colombia, c. 1630	301

