The Achievement of John Henry Newman

Ian Ker

"The brilliant essays in this book constitute the best introduction of Newman's thought ever written. They show clearly and gracefully why Newman and his work possess abiding importance—perhaps one should say abiding urgency. Joined to the magisterial biography and the superb editions he has already given us, this book demonstrates that Ian Ker is indeed a worthy successor as the keeper of Newman's flame to Henry Tristram and Charles Stephen Dessain."—Marvin R. O'Connell
