The Italian Review of International and Comparative Law

Editors-in-Chief: Fulvio M. Palombino, Andrea de Guttry, and Giuseppe Martinico

The Italian Review of International and Comparative Law offers an authoritative forum for debate on all subjects related to public and private international law, comparative law and European law. International law and comparative law are increasingly intertwined, but are rarely studied together. The Review not only fills this gap, but also encourages the use of comparative law methodology in the investigation of international law.

Peremptory Norms of General International Law (Jus Cogens)

Disquisitions and Disputations

Edited by Dire Tladi

This volume brings together an impressive collection of authors addressing both conceptual issues and challenges relating to peremptory norms of general international. Covered themes in this collection include concepts relating to the identification of peremptory norms, consequences of peremptory norms, critiques of peremptory norms, the relationship between peremptory norms and particular areas of international law as well as the peremptory status of particular norms of international law.

The contributions are presented from an array of scholars and experts with different perspective, thus providing an interesting mosaic of thoughts on peremptory norms. Written against the backdrop of the ongoing work of the International Law Commission, it exposes some tensions inherent in the jus cogens.

The Law Reports of the Special Court for Sierra Leone

Volume IV: Prosecutor v. Sesay, Kallon and Gbao (The RUF Case) (Set of 3)

Edited by Charles Chernor Jalloh and Simon Meisenberg

The Special Court for Sierra Leone was established through signature of a bilateral treaty between the United Nations and the Government of Sierra Leone in early 2002, making it the third modern ad hoc international criminal tribunal. It has tried various persons, including former Liberian President Charles Ghankay Taylor, for serious violations of international humanitarian law committed during the latter half of the Sierra Leonean armed conflict. It completed its work in December 2013. The hardback contains a CD-ROM with the decisions that are reproduced in the book and the trial transcripts, the e-version does not.

To the Uttermost Parts of the Earth

LEGAL IMAGINATION AND INTERNATIONAL POWER, 1300–1870

Martti Koskenniemi

To the Uttermost Parts of the Earth shows the vital role played by legal imagination in the formation of the international order during 1300–1870. It discusses how European statehood arose during early modernity as a locally specific combination of ideas about sovereign power and property rights, and how those ideas expanded to structure the formation of European empires and consolidate modern international relations. By connecting the development of legal thinking with the history of political thought and by showing the gradual rise of economic analysis into predominance, the author argues that legal ideas from different European legal systems - Spanish, French, English and German - have played a prominent role in the history of global power.
