The Political Mythology of Apartheid

Leonard Thompson

In a "pioneering study" (Bishop Desmond Tutu, The New York Review of Books) a leading historian of South Africa examines the causes and effects of political mythology, focusing on South Africa as a test case.

"This is an immensely valuable study. . . . A useful corrective to currently fashionable schools of interpretation that [assume] that apartheid can be fully understood in terms of material or class interests." —George M. Fredrickson

Beyond Subjective Morality

Ethical Reasoning and Political Philosophy

James S. Fishkin

This critical examination of the ways in which ordinary people deal with the question of the moral basis of their own philosophical positions provides "an important contribution to both the psychology of moral development and to moral and political philosophy." —Lawrence Kohlberg

Winner of the 1985 Erik H. Erikson Award of the International Society of Political Psychology $9.95

China's Foreign Relations in the 1980s

edited by Harry Harding

What role will China play in world affairs during the 1980s, now that it has normalized relations with the United States and opened wide its economic doors? In this thoughtful and important book, six respected scholars analyze the major factors that shape the foreign policies of China today.

"Among the parade of books on China's foreign relations . . . this one is among the best."

The American Political Science Review aims to publish scholarly research and writing of exceptional merit. Contributions must demonstrate the highest standards of excellence in conceptualization, exposition, methodology, and craftsmanship. Because the Review reaches a diverse audience of scholars and practitioners, contributors must demonstrate how their analysis or exposition illuminates a significant research problem, or answers an important research question, of general interest in political science.

Articles

Articles should be submitted to the Managing Editor, Professor Samuel C. Patterson, American Political Science Review, Department of Political Science, University of Iowa, 310 Schaeffer Hall, Iowa City, Iowa 52242. Four copies must be submitted, and none can be returned. Manuscripts must be typed double spaced, on only one side of the paper. The author's name and affiliation should not appear on the copies submitted, but only on a separate covering sheet. An abstract of no more than 150 words must be sent with the manuscript. In general, the Review considers manuscripts of up to 30 pages in length. Moreover, the Review does not consider manuscripts submitted to other publications.

Manuscripts should be prepared following the guidelines of the APSA Style Manual, a publication of the American Political Science Association's Committee on Publications. It is available from the Managing Editor's office. Otherwise, authors should follow the Chicago Manual of Style and the example of recent issues of the Review. Graphs and tables should be presented on separate pages, with their location in the manuscript indicated, for example, the notification "Table 1 about here" at the proper place.

Book Reviews

Books intended for review and all book review correspondence should be sent to the Book Review Editor, Professor Robert H. Salisbury, American Political Science Review, Department of Political Science, Washington University, Campus Box 1063, St. Louis, Missouri 63130.
