

THE SOCIETY FOR THE PROMOTION OF ROMAN STUDIES

SENATE HOUSE, MALET STREET, LONDON WC1E 7HU

PRESIDENT: DR ALAN K. BOWMAN, FBA, FSA

The Society, founded in 1910 and based in London, is the leading organization for all those interested in the study of Rome and the Roman Empire. Its scope is wide, covering Roman history, archaeology, literature and art down to about AD 700. It has a broadly based membership, drawn from over 40 countries and from all ages and walks of life. The Society publishes the Journal of Roman Studies, which deals with the Roman world in general, and also Britannia, a journal of Romano-British and connected studies, which includes an annual survey of Romano-British excavations.

The Society maintains with the Hellenic Society and in conjunction with London University's Institute of Classical Studies a joint library of works on classical antiquity and a collection of slides and film strips. Members resident in or visiting the UK may borrow books and slides and consult books belonging to the Institute. Meetings of the Society are held in London, and in other parts of the UK together with other societies. An archaeology conference is held in alternate years at a venue outside London. Triennial conferences with the Hellenic Society and the Classical Association are held in either Oxford or Cambridge.

Annual subscriptions: Members and Schools, £30 or US $60 or €60 for either the JRS or Britannia, £48 or US $96 or €96 for both. Institutions other than Schools, £35 or US $70 or €70 for each publication. Students, £15 or US $30 or €30 for one journal, £30 or US $60 or €60 for both; student membership is open to students registered at any institution of higher education in any country. Life membership for members over 65 with five years' membership, £150 or US $300 or €300.

All enquiries to the Secretary.

Telephone +44 (0)20-7862-8727; fax +44 (0)20-7862-8728; E-mail: romansoc@sas.ac.uk

THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

The Classical Association has a worldwide membership and is open to all who value the study of the languages, literature and civilisations of ancient Greece and Rome. It creates opportunities for friendly exchange and cooperation among classicists, encourages scholarship through its journals and other publications, and supports classics in schools and universities. Every year it holds an annual conference, and sponsors branches all over the country which put on programmes of lectures and other activities.

The Classical Association has about 4,000 members. The annual subscription is £8, life membership is £105, available to those aged 65 years or over. Members receive a Presidential Address once a year and a newsletter, CA News, twice a year. They may also subscribe at substantially reduced cost to the Classical Association journals Classical Quarterly, Classical Review, and Greece and Rome.

Applications for membership and subscriptions (cheques payable to 'The Classical Association') should be sent to the Executive Secretary, Classical Association, Senate House, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU; telephone +44 (0) 20-7862-8706; email: croberts@sas.ac.uk. The Secretary can also give information about journal subscription rates, and about the Association's other publications, including the Greece and Rome supplements New Surveys in the Classics.

HELLENIC AND ROMAN SOCIETIES

SLIDES COLLECTION

The Slides Collection contains over 6,700 coloured 35mm slides covering a wide variety of subjects, including sites on the Greek mainland, the Greek islands, Cyprus, Rome, Italy and the Roman Empire, Etruscan tomb paintings, Greek vases, Roman frescoes and mosaics, the Roman army and Roman Britain. Slides of artefacts form a large part of the collection and include bronzes, jewellery and vases as well as maps, plans, models and reconstructions. A computerized subject index is available.

Catalogues: Greek Slides: £7.50; Roman Slides: £6.50; both for £12
(postage £1 extra for each catalogue)

Individual slides, sets and filmstrips with notes may be hired by members. Filmstrips are also available for sale. Further details may be obtained from the Keeper of Slides or from the web-site: <http://www.sas.ac.uk/icls/library/slides.htm>

THE SOCIETY FOR THE PROMOTION OF HELLENIC STUDIES WAS FOUNDED IN 1879 TO ADVANCE THE STUDY OF GREEK LANGUAGE, LITERATURE, HISTORY, ART AND ARCHAEOLOGY IN THE ANCIENT, BYZANTINE AND MODERN PERIODS. MEMBERSHIP IS OPEN TO ALL, AND THERE IS A REDUCED RATE FOR STUDENTS.

Membership rates

2002 rates are as follows: full members £30 ($60), student associates £15 ($30), corporate members £150, libraries and institutions £45 ($90). Life membership is available at £150 ($300) to those over 65 years of age after five years' ordinary membership.

Publications

The Journal of Hellenic Studies and Archaeological Reports are published annually and sent to all members of the Society. Back numbers of the Journal of Hellenic Studies and Archaeological Reports may be ordered from the Society office; prices and availability are given in the 'Hellenic Society Publications' notice in this volume, which also gives details of indices for JHS 1941-1970 and JHS 1971-1990, Supplementary Papers and Occasional Publications.

The Joint Library

The Society helps to maintain the Joint Library, in conjunction with the Roman Society and the Institute of Classical Studies. Membership of the Hellenic Society allows the reader to borrow (within the UK) up to four books at a time, either in person or by post. Members may also borrow slides from the Joint Library's extensive collection.

Lectures

The Society arranges an annual lecture series in London, and helps to arrange other lectures in collaboration with the various local branches of the Classical Association: a programme of all these lectures is circulated in September to UK members.

Grants

The Society aims to help those engaged in Hellenic Studies at all levels, and to this end it makes grants of various kinds (further details and application forms are available from the Society office):

- Schools teaching Greek language, history or civilization may apply for grants from the Schools Sub-committee: generous donations from the A G Leventis Foundation have recently enabled the Society to increase the grants awarded, in number and size.
- Students who are interested in attending the Summer School run by the British School at Athens may apply for a bursary from the Society to assist them financially.
- Postgraduate students and other scholars engaged in specified areas of research may apply for grants from the Dover Fund.
- Institutions (typically, but not exclusively, universities) may apply for a grant from the Council of the Society, to fund academic conferences and other events.

Further details are given in a Prospectus available from the Society office or the Joint Library: these details are also given on our Web page at <http://www.sas.ac.uk/icls/hellenic/>. For all further information please contact:

Contributions to the Journal should be sent to the Editor, c/o the Society office (address above). Please send photocopies or printout, retaining original copy. A style guide is printed in volume 118 (1998). Copy on computer disk is also required, but please send disks only when your contribution has been accepted. Illustrations, including diagrams, must be supplied as camera-ready copy. For further details, please contact the Production Editor (Society address). Books for review should be addressed to the Librarian (Society address). The Journal does not accept unsolicited book reviews.
