Cambridge Opera Journal

Cambridge Opera Journal has an established reputation for publishing the best opera scholarship. Carefully researched and often illustrated with music examples, articles range widely across the whole opera repertoire and a wide variety of disciplines from musicology to literature, theatre and history, avoiding narrowly musicological or philological modes of enquiry.

As well as major articles, each issue generally includes a review article on a recent publication or publication of importance in the field.

'The experts are as mellow as they are informative, and as original as they are enthusiastic...'

NOW CELEBRATING ITS 20TH ANNIVERSARY!

PAJ

A Journal of Performance and Art

Bonnie Marranca and Gautam Dasgupta, Editors

Under continuous editorship since its founding in 1976, PAJ has been an influential voice in the arts for twenty years. Now in a new format and design, PAJ offers extended coverage of the visual arts (such as video, installations, photography, and multimedia performance), in addition to reviews of new works in theatre, dance, film, and opera. Issues include artists writings, critical and historical interviews, performance texts and plays, reports on performance abroad, and book reviews.

A new special section entitled "Art & Performance Notes" features artists' documentation and critical reviews of current arts events, especially performances and museum/gallery shows.

Published three times a year in January, May, and September for PAJ Publications.

Prepayment is required. Annual subscriptions: $24.00, individuals; $53.00, institutions. Foreign postage: $6.00, Canada & Mexico; $8.00, outside North America.
