

BUSINESS IN THE USSR

a new business dimension

BUSINESS in the USSR, published first and foremost for the Soviet market, enables Russian decision-makers, influential people and the new entrepreneurs to follow the efforts being made to modernize and liberalize the Soviet Union's economic structure. BUSINESS in the USSR also offers Western businessmen a precious and unique source of information.

It provides an exceptional medium for communicating details concerning their companies, products and services.

BUSINESS in the USSR is available in two editions with identical contents : 100,000 copies in Russian and 40,000 copies in English for the international edition.

Written by a Soviet editorial team, well-connected in top economic and social circles,

BUSINESS in the USSR is independent, objective and thorough.

NEW BOOK IN RUSSIAN

GARRI TABACHNIK

THE LAST MASTERS OF THE KREMLIN

The book is a collective portrait of the last Kremlin Rulers. In the centre of it — M. Gorbachev.

The Author gives a vivid picture of the Soviet regime nearing to its End. The book is full of a numerous before unknown or little known details. It is a veritable Encyclopedia of the Soviet Life!

But this is not only a thorough historic research but a reflection of author experience of a scholar, novelist and one of the leading Soviet Radiojournalists whose recent travels to his native land helped him to finish the book.

THE LAST MASTERS OF THE KREMLIN reads like a novel with an enormous interest.

The book has 700 pages, index and bibliography.

LENIN

A POLITICAL LIFE

LENIN: A POLITICAL LIFE VOLUME 2: WORLDS IN COLLISION

By Robert Service The second volume of Robert Service's Lenin trilogy treats Vladimir Ilich Lenin's ideas, activities, and political environment from 1910 to 1918. Service details the path by which Lenin led a turbulent Bolshevik party and adjusted its policies so as to gain authority in the soviets. Lenin the crafty and pragmatic politician as well as the utopian and merciless class warrior is portrayed in this volume, which is enriched by the hitherto unused source material and documentation published in the Soviet Union since 1985. TO THOSE WISHING TO SUBMIT MANUSCRIPTS

Manuscripts for consideration should be submitted in four double-spaced typed copies. (If manuscripts are computer generated, they should be letter quality or near letter quality. Continuous form sheets must be separated.) Notes and block quotations should be double-spaced; notes should be placed at the end of the manuscript and not at the bottoms of pages. Figures, charts, photographs, and other illustrative materials must be available in camera-ready form, although camera-ready copy does not have to be sent with the initial submission.

Manuscripts are sent to outside readers in anonymous form and should be prepared accordingly. Library of Congress transliteration and the Chicago Manual of Style are to be followed. In general, articles should not exceed twenty-five typed pages 8½" and 11" in dimension—including endnotes. Manuscripts will not be returned unless postage is included; please do not send checks.

The policy of the Slavic Review is not to consider materials that have been published or that are being considered for publication elsewhere.

Publication of articles in the Slavic Review is ordinarily limited to those submitted by members of AAASS. Nonmembers wishing to submit manuscripts are asked to request a membership application; please see the inside front cover for information on membership.
