

History
Books and Journals from
Cambridge University Press

History is the largest single subject area for the Press. It is a programme with both depth and breadth, ranging in subject matter from late antiquity to the present day, international in scope and embracing new approaches.

Our publishing includes major reference series, textbooks and monographs, as well as a collection of distinguished journals affiliated to the world's leading scholarly societies.

Together, they reflect the diversity of the discipline and offer an unmatched resource for today's historians.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Founded in 1958, The Historical Journal publishes on all aspects of history since 1500, providing a forum for younger scholars making a distinguished debut as well as publishing the work of historians with an international reputation. The journal publishes original research in full-length articles and shorter communications and major surveys of the field in historiographical reviews and review articles. Contributions are aimed both at specialists and non-specialists.

Submissions should be made online at <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/hj>.

Please contact the part-time office at hj@hist.cam.ac.uk if you have any questions about the procedure, or wish to make a submission by another means.

Detailed instructions concerning submission and style, which must be consulted before a manuscript is submitted, are available at

We aim to make a decision on submissions within three months and to publish the final version of an accepted article within six months of receipt.

Books for review should be sent to: The Editors, The Historical Journal, Faculty of History, West Road, Cambridge CB3 9EF.
