

THE CLARKE PAPERS.

His Highness Hoo. Hoo. Hoo.
Protector of Lubberland, and chief Captain of the night Guards.

I am resolv'd to ride in State,
Not caring what the small Birds prate,
To keep my Seas without control,
If once I find they'll call me Owl.

London Printed by Tho Leach, at the sign of the Golden Faulcon in Stoodle-lane.

A CARICATURE OF THE PROTECTOR RICHARD CROMWELL :

THE CLARKE PAPERS.

SELECTIONS FROM THE PAPERS OF WILLIAM CLARKE

*Secretary to the Council of the Army, 1647-1649, and to General
Monck and the Commanders of the Army in Scotland, 1651-1660.*

EDITED FOR THE ROYAL HISTORICAL SOCIETY

BY

C. H. FIRTH, M.A.

VOLUME III.

LONGMANS, GREEN, AND CO.

39 PATERNOSTER ROW, LONDON

NEW YORK AND BOMBAY

1899

All rights reserved